10:00 am A BOTA to E PRODEA (LD from NY)

(28-32) (S)

ic

After greetings and brief personal discussion in English, Mrs. BOTA tells Mrs. PRODEA she is calling because a Mrs. DAVID INCE from Long Island wanted to know how to send a package to Rumania and someone from legation apparently referred her to the Mission. Mrs. PRODEA doesn't know who could have referred her there but mentions that C NEGREA & A AFRIM who usually handle such matters have been away from the legation. Mrs. BOTA gives following address and suggests that she send letter to this person: Mrs. DAVID INCE at Ballantine or Valentine Lane in Kingspoint, Long Island, New York. Mrs. PRODEA states she will turn the address over to consulate section for them to take necessary measures.

gan

10:35 am E ZAMFIRESCU to E PRODEA &amp; G LATES

ic-nc

Asking to speak to N ZAMFIRESCU as she has doctor's appointment at 11:30 am and wonders what arrangements he has made to get her there. Both Mrs. PRODEA & LATES remark that he is in conference with BUCUR and the Minister and that they cannot disturb him. LATES tells her the conference in BUCUR's office started at 9:30 am and the others are in there also. She tells him not to disturb ZAMFIRESCU as something should be settled by 11:30 am.

(Rumanian)

gan

10:56 am N ZAMFIRESCU to E ZAMFIRESCU

og-nc

Advising that he will come after her right away. She remarks that Mrs. MICSUNESCU is supposed to be ready and they will go after her also.

11:10 am M MORARU to N BUCUR (LD from NY)

(28-37) (S)

ic

MORARU asks for clarification concerning new travel restrictions as he mentions that prior to MARCU's trip to Washington he mentioned trip to Niagara Falls. BUCUR replies that he has renounced this trip and that BALACEANU has checked with State and only way one can go to Niagara Falls is by plane or train but not driving. BUCUR also tells MORARU the regulations went into effect at time of their receipt. During time of discussion MORARU indicates that he might come down next Sunday to see BUCUR. At end of conversation BUCUR tells MORARU that from what he has heard the comrades here now will probably return to New York tomorrow but that the Mission will be advised.

P BALACEANU to G MACOVESCU (LD to Foreign Ministry in Bucharest, Rumania) (G PRODEA places call)
BALACEANU greets MACOVESCU and relates that it is practically impossible to transmit via Telex so he decided to place a personal telephone call. MACOVESCU answers that he has received what has been transmitted by the legation to date and he goes on to tell BALACEANU to "be attent" and to continue to forward what he thinks is important to Bucharest. MACOVESCU remarks that they are especially interested in what the various governments have to say and so requests BALACEANU to send their reactions. BALACEANU states he will send some numbered text to Bucharest in next 15 minutes or so. BALACEANU also remarks that he will remain at legation and continue to forward anything he thinks is important. BALACEANU tells MACOVESCU a few brief details concerning the assassination as he has received them on the radio. He remarks that reports had it that Vice-President JOHNSON had a severe nervous shock when he was told and states that according to reports JOHNSON was in another car at the time. He also states that he has heard that JOHNSON is on his way back to the capital now and has already been sworn in. MACOVESCU thanks BALACEANU for his promptness in calling and they bid one another goodbye.
