The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

DETAILS: By way of background, in October, 1993, the Information Resources Division (IRD), which is tasked with meeting the FBI's obligations under the Act, identified the need to have one of the LCD CDRU teams assist the JFK Task Force since FOIPA Analysts, beyond those already on the Task Force, were unavailable due to responding to a voluminous number of court-ordered deadlines over the next two years. At the time, the Task Force was attempting to begin and sustain the timely transfer to NARA of the one million plus pages of FBI documents subject to transfer under the Act. The CDRU team was needed not only to help fill the need for additional skilled document processing reviewers but, more importantly, to provide the benefit of its very extensive DETAILS: By memorandum dated 10/25/93, copy attached, you requested that a Supervisory PLS Specialist from the Civil Discovery Review Unit, and that supervisor's team be detailed to the JFK Task Force for six months to assist in the review and production of documents relating to the Kennedy assassination. By addendum dated 11/1/93, LCD agreed to detail one team of PLSS until 2/11/94.

On 1/28/94, we met to discuss the volume of work remaining to be addressed by the JFK Task Force. You requested that the temporary detail of CDRU personnel be extended through June, 1994. Although I was unable to accommodate your request, we have continued to discuss potential compromise positions with your Deputy, Gary L. Stoops.

Recently, we agreed to the following compromise. First, the entire team will be left in place through March, 1994, to permit completion of the processing and production of the Lee Harvey Oswald files. The team will be returned to CDRU on or before 4/4/94. Second, we have agreed to extend the detail of PLSS Kevin VanHutton until 7/5/94, to permit him to train a supervisor from among the IRD personnel assigned to the project. Third, we have agreed to extend the detail of PLS Gary E. Emrick and to detail PLS Joyce Hollman Taylor, an experienced senior document reviewer, to the JFK Task Force, to assist PLS VanHutton. We have not yet agreed on a reporting date for PLS Taylor, but we did agree that she will be returned to LCD on 7/5/94, with PLSS VanHutton and Gary Emrick.

I trust this accurately reflects our agreement and is satisfactory to you.
