ReBulet, 5-7-64, and letterhead memorandum, 4-29-64, at Los Angeles.

Information set forth in referenced Los Angeles letterhead memorandum was made available to ROBERT F. CARTWRIGHT, Consul General, U. S. Embassy, Athens, Greece, and (GEORGE HALOULOS, Aliens Directorate, Athens.)

On June 2, 1964, NICK DAMIGOS, Regional Security Office, U. S. Embassy, Athens, advised that the records of his office reflect the following information:

On October 7, 1954, Miss MARGARET WIESENDER of the U.S.E.P. (United States Escapee Program) in Athens, requested the Embassy Security Office to conduct a police agency check on DIMITRIOS DIMITROFF, son of ADAM DIMITROFF and PETROVA DAFNIA, born in 1924 in Bulgaria, radio announcer, resident of the Escapee Camp at Syros Island, Greece, who entered into Greece on July 23, 1947.

On August 20, 1954, the Embassy Security Office advised Miss MARGARET WIESENDER, USEP, Athens, Greece, that the check had been completed with the following results:

Criminal Services for Greece check: File 432036/Aug. 23, 1954, reflects that on August 12, 1947, subject was fingerprinted in the City of Salonika as a political refugee.

Political File, American Embassy, Athens:
no record on subject.

Liaison Office, American Embassy, Athens: DIMITRI ADAMOV DIMITROFF, aka "DIKO": Organizing official of the Agrarian Democratic Party of Bulgaria and Representative of the Bulgarian Political Refugees in Greece, laid a wreath at the monument of Lavrion on behalf of the Bulgarian Political Refugees on September 23, 1950. He also made a speech. Subject wrote the following books: (1) "From the Blood Orgy of the Reds in Bulgaria;" (2) "Farmers and Communism"; (3) "In the Memory of the Ever Memorable Petkov"; (4) "Kato Apo to Staliniko Knouto"; (5) "The Liberators of Bulgaria."

DAMIGOS stated that the records of the Greek Agencies set forth below were reviewed and contained the following information:

Athens General Security Sub-Directorate, Athens: File No. 127744 reflects the following report dated April 11, 1963, of the Greek Military, Naval, and Air Force Attache of the Greek Royal Embassy in Paris, France: "Subject: Bulgarian D. A. DIMITROFF - I report that during my last visit in Spain I was informed of the following re subject - DIMITROFF. 'DIMITROFF comes from North Bulgaria and is in possession of recommendation letters by our Ambassador in Berne, Mr. TRIANDAFILLOU, and other letters from a former Minister of the Prime Minister's Office to the effect that he, DIMITROFF, collaborated with the Greek authorities from 1948 to 1952. Subject, DIMITROFF, participates in a political movement the basic objectives of which are the furthering of friendly relations with our country.
The group surrounding the former Bulgarian King BORIS in Madrid, Spain, and more specifically the aide-de-camp and Marshal of the Court of King Boris, Col. CUEN-THIEFF, a firm believer in a greater Bulgaria, does not wish to have any connections with DIMITROFF because DIMITROFF is considered a pro-royalist person but of liberal leanings. DIMITROFF is married in civil matrimony for a second time to a Greek citizen named Kaliopi GERALEXI, possessor of Passport No. 61012, issued by the Greek Ministry for the Interior on November 3, 1960, and renewed by the Greek Consulate General in Madrid on March 1, 1963. DIMITROFF's daughter was born in Madrid. DIMITROFF is in London in an effort to settle his divorce case with his first wife. DIMITROFF is in possession of "Titre de voyage Americain" No. 2-A-10963093 dated January 2, 1963. There is information that DIMITROFF intends to return to Greece.' "

The aforementioned file also reflects a copy of a report from the Athens Aliens Center to the Aliens Directorate for Greece dated December 23, 1963, reading as follows: "Subject - DIMITROFF - arrived in town via Piraeus in possession of American L.P. No. A-109630933 dated February 1, 1963, along with his Greek wife Kaliopi and his daughter. They all moved into a house located at No. 9 Kadmou and Dousmani Street, Glyfada, on a rental basis. On October 14, 1963, subject - DIMITROFF - reported to this office in order to register himself and his family and stated that his address was No. 32 Themidos Street, Old Phaleron, a house belonging to his father-in-law, Mr. SOTERIOS MERLOS. Subject - DIMITROFF - stated that he had failed to state his correct address at the time of his arrival as he fears he would be murdered by the Bulgarians and Sly-Macedonians of Athens, as he - DIMITROFF - had escaped from Bulgaria and opposed the communist regime of the country. For these reasons subject - DIMITROFF - strongly requested that his above mentioned real home address be kept confidential. He intends to produce two movie films in Greece." This office possesses nothing against DIMITROFF's (subject's) wife.
