Title: JOHN F. KENNEDY
RECORDS COLLECTION ACT OF 1992

Synopsis: Boston's response to FBIHQ to complete a new search of all record retrieval systems for 'core and related subjects' related to the JFK assassination and to forward all search slips and indices cards and/or additional material pertaining to the assassination.

Administrative: Reference Bureau EC to Boston dated 07/08/1998, please note that Boston did not receive such EC until 08/04/1998 via facsimile.

Enclosure: Enclosed for the Bureau are 33 general indices cards which may or may not pertain to the JFK assassination. Also enclosed please find the requested new indices search slips and an original teletype from Director to All SACS dated November 21, 1977.

Details: Boston conducted a new search of all record retrieval systems for 'core and related subjects' related to the JFK assassination. This search included manual and automated searches of general indices, Confidential indices, Elsur indices, FOIMS, IIS, OCIS/CLEA, as well as a check for any "archived" SAC material maintained in the Boston office for all the names set forth in referenced EC.

Boston came up with the following results:

Enclosed for the Bureau please find 33 general indices cards which may pertain to the JFK assassination. Please be advised that there were five (5) files that Boston was unable to locate, therefore those cards may or may not be identical.
