Re: 62A-HQ-1029205, 10/02/1996

Details: The Boston Division has located BS 92-118 Sub 3 which is a seven (7) volume subfile connected to a 102 volume main file. The subject of both the main file and subfile is RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA SR., who was the head of the New England "La Cosa Nostra" Organized Crime Family until his death in 1984.

On 10/1/96, CDC Boston advised MR. BRIAN FIELDS during referenced telephone call that the information contained in Sub 3 was provided by a symbol numbered source identified as BS 837-C*. CDC Boston requested that Boston Division Informant Coordinator, SA ROGER TARDIE attempt to locate any record regarding BS 837-C*. SA TARDIE advised on 10/1/96 that he caused a check to be made of his records, FBIHQ informant records and Boston Elsur records for any information on this source with negative results.

During referenced telephone conversation, MR. FIELDS asked CDC Boston to ship the following original serials from BS 92-118 Sub 3:

Serials: 107, 214, 217, 233, 362, 384, 407.

This is being done as an enclosure to this EC. It should be noted that these serials cover the time period from June 1962 until October 1964. The federal law authorizing the interception of wire and oral communications did not come into being until 1968. The Boston Division is unable to answer questions 1 through 4 set forth in referenced EC.
