ANTI-RACKETEERING

The following information was furnished by a confidential source of information:

NATE STEIN has a promoter's license which permits him to engage in fund-raising campaigns for various charitable organizations and fund drives.

N.Y.
STEIN has in the past been very active in the promotion of fund-raising activities held annually in New York under the auspices of "Poor Children of Italy." Source believes that WALTER WINCHELL and New York political boss CARMINE DE SAPIO were associated in some manner with STEIN in this fund-raising activity. STEIN has bragged that this activity is most lucrative financially to himself and others.

N.Y.
STEIN in late 1958 or early 1959 visited at the Sands Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, and while at the hotel had everything on the house. STEIN was given much freedom in the hotel and walked inside the pits without being challenged.

STEIN on one occasion was joined by DESL ARNAZ in gambling at the crap table at the Sands Casino, and ARNAZ lost the sum of $26,000.00. STEIN went to the casino cashier's NEVADA cage at the Sands and obtained, without note or marker, the sum of $5,000.00. STEIN then went to the Tropicana Casino and within fifteen minutes had won the sum $15,000.00, which he gave to ARNAZ. STEIN stated that this was the last time he would do ARNAZ such a favor.

U.S.
STEIN is held in high regard by high ranking Teamster officials HAROLD GIBBONS, RICHARD KAVNER and (FNU) SAN SOUCI.
