DL 92-339

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

DL T-3 advised on May 14, 1970, that JOE CAMPISI and his brother, SAM CAMPISI, have been known to him for many years. JOE CAMPISI takes some bets at the Egyptian Restaurant which he runs. He primarily handles bets during the football season. JOE and SAM also arrange big dice games, some of which he (DL T-3) has attended. These games are made up mostly of Jewish gamblers. DL T-3 caught JOE CAMPISI trying to cheat in one of these games about a year ago and they had some harsh words. Since that time they have been cordial in their meetings but he does not trust the CAMPISIs in any gambling game. DL T-3 was asked if he believed CAMPISI, or anyone with outside hoodlum support could organize and control the bookmakers and gambling in Dallas. He replied that in his opinion this would be virtually impossible. He said the bookies in Dallas are independent operators and have been for many years. He does not see how anyone, no matter what his financial backing or hoodlum connections, could control more than a few of the bookies in this area. One reason for this is the fact that only a few of the bookmakers in this area are Italian. Those who are not Italian would not be impressed or intimidated by Italian hoodlums such as CARLOS MARCELLO. He said that as far as he knows there is no La Cosa Nostra organization in Dallas at this time.

DL T-4 advised on June 2, 1970, that he has visited CAMPISI's Egyptian Restaurant from time to time recently and although he has not been able to establish that any booking is going on in the restaurant he has learned that JOE CAMPISI has been getting some hot tips on some horse races and has been betting all he can get down on them. CORKY CAMPISI, SAM CAMPISI's son won $1,700 on the Kentucky Derby. CORKY is both betting and booking.

CHARLIE MC NATT recently placed a $3,650 bet on a horse with JOE CAMPISI. DL T-4 does not know whether CAMPISI handled this whole amount or whether he laid some of it off.

The telephone number at the Egyptian Restaurant that is used for handling bets and any booking business is TA 7-7711. The other number at the Egyptian, TA 7-0355 is not used for anything but regular restaurant business.

DL T-5 advised on June 15, 1970, that JOE CAMPISI had a burglary at the Egyptian Restaurant on the night of June 13-14, 1970, during which the floor safe was opened and $10,000 taken. CAMPISI told DL T-5 he had $2,000 insurance on the loss and noted there was no visible damage to the safe. DL T-5 asked
