and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

AT MERIDIAN, MISSISSIPPI

DL T-4 on October 28, 1963, advised SA JOHN H. PROCTOR, JR., that LEO KINARD is a whiskey bootlegger, and has been for a number of years. DL T-4 did not believe KINARD would hijack any whiskey, but would buy hijacked whiskey and sell it.

DL T-4 advised he does not know subject DOLAN, but he does know GEORGE FUQUA, whom he described as a whiskey hijacker who, on one occasion about two years ago, hijacked a $1,500 load of whiskey from DL T-4. DL T-4 advised there were two carloads of whiskey involved, and that only his load was hijacked, while the other load, the property of LEO KINARD, was not taken.
