Re San Francisco nitel to Bureau dated 8/10/76.

On 8/13/76, SF 8677-PC advised that JIMMY FRATIANNO was coming to her apartment that evening.

FRATIANNO came to PC's apartment on the evening of 8/13/76 and the following information was obtained.

PC asked FRATIANNO if anyone was going to try and get rid of him, apparently in reference to JOHN ROSELLI recently murdered organized crime figure in Florida. FRATIANNO advised the PC that he had been called by San Francisco newspaper in regards to the ROSELLI murder and that he had refused to talk to the newspaper man. PC later related that FRATIANNO said the call came from a San Francisco newspaper and that it was in regards to JOHN ROSELLI.

FRATIANNO told PC that he has known this guy (PC later verified that the "guy" FRATIANNO referred to is JOHN ROSELLI) for 20 years and that he had met for dinner with ROSELLI in the Los Angeles area on several occasions. FRATIANNO advised PC he knew nothing about the murder of this guy and was very upset that his name had appeared in a newspaper article regarding the murder of this guy.

PC expressed concern that FRATIANNO would be hurt and FRATIANNO told PC not to worry that he does not talk to anyone.

FRATIANNO placed a telephone call to someone apparently in Hayward, California. FRATIANNO advised other party that he has the "package" in his car. He told the other party that he had been blasted in the Los Angeles paper and the New York Times. FRATIANNO told the other party that someone will make an offer in another week. FRATIANNO said that he talked to someone in New York today and had heard about the New York Times article. FRATIANNO told the other party that they will pay. He reminded the other party he has the "thing" in his car.

PC inquired with FRATIANNO about the above telephone call and FRATIANNO told PC that the IRS wants him.

On 8/14/76, PC advised that FRATIANNO, when he came to her apartment the previous evening, had cut out a newspaper article from a San Francisco newspaper concerning the murder of organized crime figure JOHN ROSELLI and FRATIANNO was extremely upset because his name had been mentioned in the newspaper article concerning several meetings he had with JOHN ROSELLI in June, 1976 in the Los Angeles area. PC advised that JIMMY told her that he had nothing to do with the ROSELLI murder and did not know who did.

PC also advised that FRATIANNO told her that he thinks the IRS is going to sue him. PC advised he stated no reason for this or did not explain any further.

San Francisco will continue monitor the activities of JIMMY FRATIANNO and his criminal associates.
