Title marked "changed" to indicate variations in spelling of subject's last name as indicated in information secured by Legat, London, from Danish Security Service.

Enclosed is copy of letter from Legat, London, dated 7/3/69 together with one copy of report of Danish Security Service. For information of recipient offices, Danish Security Service report indicates that while subject was assigned in that country 9/5/58 - 10/24/61, he made obvious efforts to contact young Americans studying in Copenhagen including Rembert Caven Alley, DOB 10/30/32, David Allan Booth, DOB 2/16/32, Morray Brown, DOB 3/23/34 and Marvin Kantor, DOB 5/9/34(S)

Kantor is subject of your file 105-34683. It is noted this case is presently pending for an interview of Kantor by the Chicago Office. Kantor was also subject of applicant-type investigation in 1964, your file 151-651, New York file 151-528, and Chicago file 151-206. Brown is subject of your file 105-33220. Booth is subject of your file 100-37079 and Alley is subject of your file 105-34612. Pertinent serials containing information developed in connection with these four investigations are being duplicated by Bureau and will be furnished to you upon completion. When they are received, you should review the information contained therein and consider the advisability of having last indicated office of origin conduct inquiries to determine their current residence, activities and employment and thereafter submit recommendations regarding interviews of these persons in order to alert them to subject's presence in the United States so that they will promptly notify us if any efforts are made by him to reestablish contact with them. (S) (u)

Check of Bufiles was also made concerning variations in spelling of subject's name indicated in caption of this communication which disclosed the following additional pertinent information:

"Checklist of Soviet Officials Abroad," dated 8/5/69 classified "Secret" which was furnished by CIA lists Vladislav Abarchalin, wife Renata, as employee of Soviet Embassy in Copenhagen as of 9/58. Same publication dated 5/1/60 contains same information as of 10/59, while publication dated 9/1/65 shows subject still in that country with last arrival there 12/9/64. (S) (u)

Letter from CIA dated 6/30/61 indicates that subject also had contacts in Copenhagen with Donald Alexander Dillingham, brother of William Bradford Dillingham. Information from Legat, Bonn, indicated that in 8/65 Donald Dillingham, 11979 1/2 Idaho Avenue, Los Angeles, California, was in contact with the Ministry of Justice, German Democratic Republic, East Berlin, Germany, to request information regarding acquisition of citizenship in that country. The Dillinghams are subjects of your files 140-23951 and 40-127 respectively. Files of both are being reviewed at Bureau for any pertinent information not already in your possession and similar attention should be afforded these individuals as that given to the four persons previously mentioned above with whom subject had contact in Denmark. (S) (u)

NOTE: Subject arrived in U. S. 4/14/69 in connection with his assignment as Second Secretary at captioned establishment. Information from CIA indicated subject had previously been assigned in Denmark during which time he actively cultivated friendship of American students studying there. In accordance with Bureau (S) (u)
