WILLIAM MORRIS THEATRICAL AGENCY
1740 Broadway
New York City N.Y.

ED JONES, Investigator, New York City Anti-Crime Committee, on December 4, 1956, advised the New York Office that reportedly VINCENT ALO was part-owner of the well known MORRIS THEATRICAL AGENCY at that time.

Parisian Dance Hall
1568 Broadway
New York City N.Y.

PCI [redacted] on August 20, 1957, advised that JOHN BUSSO, also known as Johnny Connecticut, had an interest in the Parisian Ballroom which was operated by JOE BLACK, who is reportedly related to BUSSO.

OTHER 4

Information furnished by Inspector RAYMOND MC GUIRE, New York City Police Department, revealed that the Parisian Dance Hall, 1568 Broadway, New York City, has been owned by the LAUREL OPERATING CORPORATION since 1940. In February, 1957, officers with this organization were noted as CHARLES PISCITELLO, 420 East 13th Street, president and treasurer, and NICHOLAS PISCITELLO, 30 East 9th Street, secretary. N.Y.

A review of the complete folder for the Parisian Dance Hall at the New York City Division of Licenses, by the New York City Police Department, failed to locate any information indicating ownership of or connection with this concern on the part of a JOE BLACK.

NICHOLAS PISCITELLO, described earlier, was interrogated by the New York City Police Department concerning JOE BLACK. He denied that he or his brother or anyone connected with the Parisian Dance Hall is known as JOE BLACK. PISCITELLO admitted knowing JOHN BUSSO but denied a relationship or a close friendship with BUSSO.

G. Illegal Enterprises

THOMAS ALOYSIUS MARINO is listed as Number 273 on the Narcotics National List and among his associates are listed VITO GENOVESE and ANTHONY ANASTASIA, considered to be notorious hoodlums in the United States. MARINO is alleged to be part of an international narcotics ring, smuggling from Europe through Florida and the Brooklyn waterfronts.

JOHN O'MARA, New York Anti-Crime Committee, advised in 1953 that MARINO was reported to be chairman of the board of Italian racketeers in New York City. He explained that all of the biggest racketeers are joined together in a group, and, if there is any trouble between them, they meet to settle their differences.

NY 2151-C advised on October 23, 1958, that MARINO is currently lining up bookmakers in the Brooklyn area to subscribe to his exclusive race wire service. According to informant, MARINO planned to charge each bookmaker $40.00 per week for this service.

AMERICAN LEGION CLUB
