ReBuairtel to NY, dated 1/21/64.

Inquiry by NY at Dun and Bradstreet, Inc. and Credit Bureau of Greater NY, failed to reveal any information concerning the identity of the Washington Bank which financed Rockhill Lodge and Resort Corp. (Rockhill) loan. NY 3936-C, whose identity is known to the Bureau, advised that auditors or bank examiners examined loans approved by OGILVIE at First National Bank, Washington, D.C. including the Rockhill loan and these loans were found not in accordance with good practice. He further advised that due to the request of the First National Bank, Washington, D.C. to repay this loan Rockhill is making efforts to obtain a loan from a bank in Montreal, Canada to repay a loan at the Washington Bank.

It may be possible for WFO to make inquiry with the National Bank examiners and/or Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. examiners in order to obtain information re examination of irregularities at the bank. This would then give WFO a reason to contact the First National Bank, Washington, D.C.
