THOMPSON advised on July 20 and 21, 1959 that he is the "American citizen" referred to in the details of enclosed report as the person contacted by subject for the purpose of gathering information for Cuban intelligence in Miami and is passing information from Cuban intelligence to appropriate U. S. Government agencies.

THOMPSON volunteered further on July 20, 1959, to SAs WILLIAM P. KELLY and THOMAS H. ERRION that he advised JUAN MAAS, described by THOMPSON as a career officer in Cuban intelligence, that he, THOMPSON, would be willing to work for Cuban intelligence in Miami, provided that he be paid a weekly salary of $300.00 and expenses, and that $100.00 weekly be paid to AL MANHEIM, a contact of THOMPSON's in Miami, and MM T-2 in enclosed report. Fla.

THOMPSON said he made such a proposition to MAAS while THOMPSON and subject were in Havana during mid-July, 1959.

THOMPSON further volunteered that he also insisted that before beginning any work for the Cubans he would register with the U. S. Government as an agent of a foreign government. He stated that MAAS was not receptive to his insistence as to registering, but that MAAS finally reluctantly agreed. THOMPSON stated; however, that no agreement was reached as to the salary to be paid to THOMPSON and MANHEIM.

On July 24, 1959, THOMPSON voluntarily furnished information that ALBERTO LOPEZ stated on July 24, 1959, that RAUL CASTRO, brother of Cuban Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO, had reservations at an unknown New York, New York hotel for the night of July 25, 1959. Cuba Fla.

According to THOMPSON, LOPEZ made a telephone call on the night of July 24, 1959, to an unknown person in Havana. THOMPSON stated that LOPEZ told him that the person with whom LOPEZ spoke stated that RAUL CASTRO was due to speak or officiate at an unidentified July 26 function in New York City on July 26, 1959. THOMPSON further volunteered that LOPEZ advised him that RAUL CASTRO allegedly refused to travel incognito. THOMPSON stated that LOPEZ said there was a possibility that RAUL CASTRO would stop in Miami, Florida, before going to New York, but that RAUL CASTRO had no plans to leave the plane if it landed at Miami.

AL MANHEIM, MM T-2 in enclosed report, advised on July 12, 1959, that his source concerning information re "AL MORENO" and THOMPSON, was THOMPSON himself (MM T-1 in enclosed report.)

MANHEIM further advised on July 12, 1959, that THOMPSON furnished him with a Florida license tag, number 1-5848, and that according to THOMPSON, the license tag was that of a car operated by a "Cuban contact" of THOMPSON's. MANHEIM advised he checked out the tag number and determined it was registered to one RICARDO P. PIMENTEL, 6830 NW 28th Avenue, Miami, Fla.
