This document is made available through the declassification efforts and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

Discover the Truth at: http://www.theblackvault.com

JFK Assassination System Identification Form

Date:

6/8/2015

Agency Information

AGENCY:

': FB

RECORD NUMBER: 124-90075-10023

RECORD SERIES:

HQ

AGENCY FILE NUMBER:

CR 92-3189-30

Document Information

ORIGINATOR: FBI

FROM:

CG

TO: HQ

TITLE:

DATE:

10/07/1960

PAGES:

142

SUBJECTS:

LEONARD PATRICK

DOCUMENT TYPE:

PAPER, TEXTUAL DOCUMENT

CLASSIFICATION:

Unclassified

RESTRICTIONS:

CURRENT STATUS: Redact

DATE OF LAST REVIEW:

07/02/1998

OPENING CRITERIA:

INDEFINITE

COMMENTS:

RPT

CG 92-374 VLI:plf

Report of SA VINCENT L. INSERRA dated 9/3/59 at Chicago.
Bureau airtel to Chicago dated 8/26/60.

/- C -

INFORMANTS

CG	T-1	Mr. BECKER, Assistant Superintendent, U. S. Post Office, Chicago, Illinois, to SA ROY D. RAGSDALE	æ vi
CG	T-2	IRWIN GOODMAN, Vice-President, Exchange National Bank, Chicago, Illinois, to SA RAGSDALE.	8
CG	т-3	Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Chicago, Illinois	취
CG	T-4	SANDY SMITH, "Chicago Tribune" Crime Reporter	$ [2]
CG	T-5	Former PCI to SA H. A. SCHLINKER	OTHER 4
CG	T-6	CG 6241-C to SA JOHN B. HARRINGTON
CG	т-7	EILEEN EDGAR, Clerk, Security Department, Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Chicago, Illinois, to Investigative Clerk FRANCIS G. KAHL	K 3 (1) (2) (3) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4) (4
CG	T-8	CG 6379-C to SA CURTIS A. HESTER	8
CG	T-9	CG 6036-C to SA HARRINGTON	7
CG	T-10	CG 6215-C to SA ROBERT L. BAKER

- B -COVER PAGE

CG 92-374 VLI:plf

CG T-11	CG 5902-8 to SA RAYMOND J. DRISCOLL
CG T-12	PCI to SA HAROLD D. SELL OTHER 4
CG T-13	Former Baltimore PCI OTHER 4
CG T-14	CG 6283-C to SA VINCENT L. INSERRA
CG T-15	CG 6013-C to SA CLARK A. HULL
CG T-16	CG 6272-C to SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER
CG T-17	CI to SA FRANCIS J. STEFANAK
CG T-18	PCI to SA BRADNER C. OTHER 4
CG T-19	CG 6232-C to SAtWILLIAM A. MEINCKE
CG T-20	JOHN VALKANET, Police Officer, 41st District, Chicago Police Department, to SA LENARD A. WOLF. Contact has been insufficient to judge reliability
CG T-21	Dun and Bradstreet, Chicago, Illinois
CG T-22	PCI to SA CLIFFORD A. GRILL
CG T-23	Former CGC to SA THOMAS W. PARRISH OTHER 4
CG T-24	PCI to SA C. LEONARD TREVIRANUS who has furnished reliable and unreliable other 4 information in the past.
CG T-25	CG 7518-CS to IC FRANCIS G. KAHL
CG T-26	PCI to SA MARSHALL E, RUTLAND OTHER 4

- C -COVER PAGE

CG 92-374 VLI:plf

ADMINISTRATIVE

Information obtained from CG 6343-C*, if utilized, must be carefully paraphrased in order that the identity of this source is not disclosed.

On December 18, 1959, CG 6343-C* advised that a person believed to be LEONARD PATRICK briefly appeared at Celano's and spoke with JAMES CELANO.

On January 18, 1960, CG 6343-C* advised that LEONARD PATRICK spoke briefly this date with FRANK FERRARO, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, both Chicago top hoodlums, and HY GODFREY, at Celano's. Nothing of any pertinence was reported from this conversation.

On May 16, 1960, CG 6343-C* advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS and HY GODFREY had a conversation at Celano's. During this conversation, HUMPHREYS asked GODFREY if he got ahold of "Rammey" for LENNIE PATRICK to which GODFREY said that he "did get them together". RAMMEY referred to is possibly one (FNU) RAMMEY who was reported by CG 6232-C as a juice man for GUS ALEX in the big crap games.

- D* -COVER PAGE CG 92-374 VLI:fes:pat

CG T-10 stated that these "district men" are required to pay a certain sum of money each month to GIANCANA, who in turn, turns over a certain sum to ACCARDO. The district men are allowed rather wide latitude in the means they exercise to raise this money and any money they make in excess of the amount payable to GIANCANA may be counted as their profit. The informant pointed out these payments must be made promptly and in cash and failure to meet these obligations are generally deemed to be a fatal mistake.

This informant pointed out that the principal thing that the "syndicate" has to sell is protection. For example, protection from police action and protection from other hoodlums. The informant noted the fact that gambling is protected from police action and this inevitably gives rise to other criminal activity such as prostitution, narcotics, and fencing. The informant pointed out that if the police are compromised in one activity there is a certain reluctance to act in another direction. The informant stated that the district man is under considerable compulsion to raise a certain amount of money each month, and if gambling revenues are uncertain or inadequate he will turn to any means available.

On February 25, 1958, CG T-11 advised SA RAYMOND J. DRISCOLL, in answer to the question as to the existence and identity of a "syndicate", was most emphatic that a "syndicate" exists and total members might number as high as twenty-five. CG T-11 doubted that there was anyone man in charge. He explained that certain men in various levels of power exist in certain areas of Chicago. For example, LENNY PATRICK and DAVE YARAS of Jewish parentage control the Roosevelt Avenue area, and their headquarters is at Roosevelt and Independence Boulevard.

Gambling

Bookmaking

On February 26, 1958, CG T-12 advised SA HAROLD D. SELL that he worked for LENNY PATRICK as an operator in a 50-50 book in 1948 and 1949. This book was operated in a barber shop at 330 West Roosevelt and his payments were made to LENNY PATRICK at the New Lawndale Restaurant in that neighborhood. CG T-12 states that at that time PATRICK was in control of the New Lawndale Restaurant and there was a full-scale hard card book being operated there. According to CG T-12, PATRICK had the area from Kedzie to Cicero and from Madison south to approximately 18th Street. No one could open a book or take on any bets unless he had the OK of PATRICK. At that time PATRICK's lieutenants were YARAS and BLOCK.

900000 10000

CG 92-374 VLI: fes

was a gambling room in the rear of this building which had an entrance near 944 Eastwood Avenue. It was a big "pan" and poker game mainly played by the "Jewish boys". He stated that he saw several people driving big Cadillacs go into this gambling room, but he did not know who they were. He stated this room did not have a liquor bar, but did have a little snack or sandwich bar. He stated that to the best of his knowledge, this game was "wide open".

On March 18, 1958, CG T-15 advised that the gambling joint at 948 West Eastwood is owned by MAX NEEDLER (phonetic), and is controlled by the "outfit". CG T-15 added that the ownership and license of this place was in the name of BOB GRIFFIN or GRIFFITH who worked there at one time but is no longer there now. According to CG T-15, GRIFFIN would like to get his name off of these records, but was afraid to do so because of the "outfit".

CG T-16 advised on December 15, 1959, that during the latter part of November a friend of his was approached by HENRY FRIEDENBERG, the owner and operator of Arcadia Press. Arcadia Press is one of the three large distributors of football parley cards in the Chicago area.

CG T-16 stated that the purpose of FRIEDENBERG's approach was to have his friend contact LENNY PATRICK. CG T-16 stated that PATRICK was a fairly close friend of his and had been for approximately 15 or 20 years. He said that FRIEDENBERG asked his friend to contact PATRICK due to the fact that BILL FINKEL had recently died. CG T-16 noted that FINKEL operated a "Jewish card room" in the vicinity of Morse and Glenwood on the far North Side of Chicago in the territory controlled by LENNY PATRICK. FRIEDENBERG asked his friend to urge PATRICK to let him, FRIEDENBERG, take over the operation of this card room.

CG T-16 advised that as a result of FRIEDENBERG's request, this individual met PATRICK on the night of November 23, 1959, at the Black Angus Restaurant at 7127 North Western, Chicago. He presented FRIEDENBERG's request to PATRICK without recommendation and was told by PATRICK that FINKEL did not own the card room, and that FINKEL had operated the games in the card room only as a front for PATRICK. PATRICK told informant's friend that the room was, in fact, owned by PATRICK and that "out of the goodness of his heart" he was giving the widow of FINKEL $100 a month as compensation for the loss of her husband's income.

PATRICK claimed that he already had someone else in mind to take over this card room, and that he should tell FRIEDEN-BERG that he was "out of luck" in this regard.

CG 92-374

III. ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES

Gambling

CG T-18 advised on October 9, 1961, that a bookie named BEN CUTLER is operating his books mostly in Cicero, Illinois, at the present time. He said, however, that CUTLER continues to operate to some degree in the vicinity of Ogden and Kedzie Avenues in Chicago. According to CG T-19 LENNY PATRICK obtains 50 per cent of CUTLER's income from operations.

CG T-18 advised on October 27, 1961, that he has known LENNY PATRICK for many years as the gambling boss in Chicago's 24th Ward and PATRICK obtains a 50 per cent interest of all proceeds from gambling activity in this Ward. He said PATRICK's 24th Ward headquarters are in the Douglas Park Hotel in about the 3600 block of West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, and his office is directly behind the hotel desk. CG T-18 also advised that LENNY PATRICK's brother, JACK PATRICK is at the hotel more than LENNY.

CG T -18 further advised that LENNY PATRICK approached him about two months ago and wanted him to open a bookie operation. PATRICK advised him this would be a fifty-fifty deal with any police payoffs coming out of the informant's 50 per cent. The informant stated that he turned PATRICK down on this deal.

CG T-19 advised recently that he had received information that LEONARD PATRICK had recently become involved in an argument with one LOUIS CIRIONA over the operation of a horse book on the north side of Chicap. CG T-19 stated that CIRIONA is a runner for LOUIS BRIATTA who controls bookmaking activities in Chicago's Loop area. BRIATTA is directly answerable to Chicago hoodlums GUS ALEX and FRANK FERRARO. Informant was of the opinion that the argument was due to the fact that CIRIONA had been given authority to operate a horse book in a particular area by SAM GIANCANA. This fact was discovered by PATRICK who attempted to disuade CIRIONA from operating. Failing to do so PATRICK reportedly went to GUS ALEX in an effort to settle the dispute.

Prostitution

On June 24, 1957, CG T-23 was contacted by SA THOMAS W. PARRISH and advised that the underworld group had controlled the complete operations of the call system run by D. WHEELER and herself. She stated that they had forced them into obtaining more and more girls for prostitution. She stated that LENNY PATRICK visited them on various occasions demanding that they expand their operation or they would get into serious trouble. CG T-23 stated her last contact with PATRICK was in 1953.

She stated that when she and WHEELER were arrested by the FBI, PATRICK threatened to kidnap and kill her son if she revealed any information regarding the operations of the call business. She further advised that on one occasion, PATRICK told her she would get the same treatment that he had given GROSS if she gave him any trouble. CG T-23 stated that GROSS was a Chicago politician who was killed in gangland manner approximately five years ago.

CG T-23 advised that PATRICK is very friendly with (FNU) NOODLEMAN who formerly ran a currency exchange on Rush Street and handled a considerable amount of racketeer money. She stated that when she and WHEELER were operating, they deposited all the checks through NOODLEMAN. (IRVING NUDLEMAN)

Suspect in Gangland Slayings

It was reported to the Chicago Office in 1946, exact date unknown, by an unknown source, that DAVE YARAS and LEONARD PATRICK are reported to be the "torpedoes" or the killers for the "syndicate".

It was reported to the Chicago Office in 1946, exact date unknown, by an unknown source, that PATRICK may have had a part in the killing of WILLIE TARSCH and "ZUKIE the Bookie" ZUCKERMAN, West Roosevelt Road gamblers who were killed in gangland style several years ago by unknown persons.

In 1934, LEONARD PATRICK was at a crap game operated by POLSKY and CRATISH, and PATRICK told POLSKY that he wanted a cut from this game. An argument followed, and PATRICK seized a broken milk bottle and thrusted the jagged edge into the face of one of POLSKY's men and cut him badly. POLSKY then said that he would get even with PATRICK for this incident. Sometime later, POLSKY, CRATISH and ZUCKIE ZUKERMAN were machine gunned to death, reportedly for robbing handbooks; however, it was generally known in the neighborhood, that LEONARD PATRICK was responsible for these killings due to his feud with POLSKY.

According to CG T-14, sometime later, JAMES RAGEN, a racing wire service operator, was slain. According to the newspapers and the opinion of others in the 24th Ward, it was strongly suspected that LEONARD PATRICK and DAVE YARAS were responsible for this killing.

In October, 1947, Captain CONNELLY and Lieutenant DRURY, suspended police officers, stated that it was alleged that the same persons, PATRICK, BLOCK and YARAS, were responsible for the shooting of "BUGSY SIEGEL", a West Coast racketeer with reported connections in the alleged Chicago crime "syndicate", because of the modus operandi used in the shooting of SIEGEL. SIEGEL was in the California residence of VIRGINIA HILL, a girlfriend of his.

On September 10, 1948, LEONARD PATRICK was interviewed in connection with an investigation by the Chicago Office at which time he stated that he resided at 4248 West Congress Street, Chicago, and that he, with his brother, JACK PATRICK, operated the Lawndale Restaurant at 3714 West Roosevelt Road.

Regarding recent gangland killings in the Chicago area, specifically those of NORTON POLSKY, 1865 South Springfield Avenue, "LITTLE SNEEZE" FRIEDMAN, Midwest Athletic Club, and HARRY "The Horse" KROTISH, 1500 block of South St. Louis Avenue, PATRICK stated that in his opinion, all three of these individuals had been killed because, he heard, they were engaged in robberies of handbooks and gambling houses. He stated that none of their activities took place in the Roosevelt Road area. He stated he considered himself a close personal friend of all of the above individuals, however, he disclaimed any definite knowledge as to what their activities were prior to the time they were killed.

On March 10, 1958, CG T-24 advised that a WILLIAM DRURY, former Chicago Police Lieutenant, who was killed in gangland style on September 22, 1952, was a client of CG T-24. Again CG T-24 stated LEONARD PATRICK was one of the individuals responsible for DRURY's murder.

In a "Daily News" article dated January 5, 1953, concerning the slaying of MILTON GLICKMAN whose body was found in the trunk of his car on January 14, 1953, it was stated that the police were seeking LEONARD PATRICK, reputed "syndicate" boss of the West Side for questioning concerning the slaying. PATRICK was sought because of an unlisted telephone number of a man described as PATRICK's first lieutenant, one HERSHEY (HARRY) KOVIN, was found on GLICKMAN's body.

During November, 1955, CG T-13 advised that LENNY PATRICK and DAVE YARAS were hired gunmen and killers for the Chicago underworld group.

Miscellaneous

On December 10, 1958, CG T-16 advised that LENNY PATRICK controls the gambling for the Chicago mob in the West Roosevelt Road area and was not in the good graces of other Chicago hoodlums. According to CG T-16, the reason for this is that PATRICK has been muscling in on legitimate businessmen and bringing heat on the Chicago mob thereby.

The Chicago Crime Commission reported in a memorandum of March 26, 1947, information reflecting that DAVID YARAS and LENNY PATRICK, sought by the police, might be in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in the company of a LARRY DOYLE, a Twin-Cities hoodlum. It was learned that both these persons had been with DOYLE at his place of business but had left before Chicago police authorities reached town to apprehend them.

CG 92-374 VLI:fes

CG T-10 stated that these "district men" are required to pay a certain sum of money each month to GIANCANA, who in turn, turns over a certain sum to ACCARDO. The district men are allowed rather wide latitude in the means they exercise to raise this money and any money they make in excess of the amount payable to GIANCANA may be counted as their profit. The informant pointed out these payments must be made promptly and in cash and failure to meet these obligations are generally deemed to be a fatal mistake.

This informant pointed out that the principal thing that the syndicate has to sell is protection. For example, protection from police action and protection from other hoodlums. The informant noted the fact that gambling is protected from police action and this inevitably gives rise to other criminal activity such as prostitution, narcotics, and fencing. The informant pointed out that if the police are compromised in one activity there is a certain reluctance to act in another direction. The informant stated that the district man is under considerable compulsion to raise a certain amount of money each month, and if gambling revenues are uncertain or inadequate he will turn to any means available.

On February 25, 1958, CG T-11 advised SA RAYMOND J. DRISCOLL, in answer to the question as to the existence and identity of a syndicate, was most emphatic that a syndicate exists and total members might number as high as twenty-five. CG T-11 doubted that there was anyone man in charge. He explained that certain men in various levels of power exist in certain areas of Chicago. For example, LENNY PATRICK and DAVE YARAS of Jewish parentage control the Roosevelt Avenue area, and their headquarters is at Roosevelt and Independence Boulevard.

Gambling

Bookmaking

On February 26, 1958, CG T-12 advised SA HAROLD D. SELL that he worked for LENNY PATRICK as an operator in a 50-50 book in 1948 and 1949. This book was operated in a barber shop at 330 West Roosevelt and his payments were made to LENNY PATRICK at the New Lawndale Restaurant in that neighborhood. CG T-12 states that at that time PATRICK was in control of the New Lawndale Restaurant and there was a full-scale hard card book being operated there. According to CG T-12, PATRICK had the area from Kedzie to Cicero and from Madison south to approximately 18th Street. No one could open a book or take on any bets unless he had the OK of PATRICK. At that time PATRICK's lieutenants were YARAS and BLOCK.

EEEC01-5100P

CG 92-374

Prostitution

On June 24, 1957, CG T-23 was contacted by SA THOMAS W. PARRISH and advised that the syndicate had controlled the complete operations of the call system run by D. WHEELER and herself. She stated that they had forced them into obtaining more and more girls for prostitution. She stated that LENNY PATRICK visited them on various occasions demanding that they expand their operation or they would get into serious trouble. CG T-23 stated her last contact with PATRICK was in 1953.

She stated that when she and WHEELER were arrested by the FBI, PATRICK threatened to kidnap and kill her son if she revealed any information regarding the operations of the call business. She further advised that on one occasion, PATRICK told her she would get the same treatment that he had given GROSS if she gave him any trouble. CG T-23 stated that GROSS was a Chicago politician who was killed in gangland manner approximately five years ago.

CG T-23 advised that PATRICK is very friendly with (FNU) NOODLEMAN who formerly ran a currency exchange on Rush Street and handled a considerable amount of racketeer money. She stated that when she and WHEELER were operating, they deposited all the checks through NOODLEMAN. (IRVING NUDLEMAN)

Suspect In Gangland Slayings

It was reported to the Chicago Office in 1946, exact date unknown, by an unknown source, that DAVE YARAS and LEONARD PATRICK are reported to be the "torpedoes" or the killers for the "syndicate."

It was reported to the Chicago Office in 1946, exact date unknown, by an unknown source, that PATRICK may have had a part in the killing of WILLIE TARSCH and "ZUKIE the Bookie" ZUCKERMAN, West Roosevelt Road gamblers who were killed in gangland style several years ago by unknown persons.

90055:10=2.

In 1934, LEONARD PATRICK was at a crap game operated by POLSKY and CRATISH, and PATRICK told POLSKY that he wanted a cut from this game. An argument followed, and PATRICK seized a broken milk bottle and thrusted the jagged edge into the face of one of POLSKY's men and cut him badly. POLSKY then said that he would get even with PATRICK for this incident. Sometime later, POLSKY, CRATISH and ZUCKIE ZUKERMAN were machine gunned to death, reportedly for robbing handbooks; however, it was generally known in the neighborhood, that LEONARD PATRICK was responsible for these killings due to his feud with POESKY.

According to CG T-14, sometime later, JAMES RAGEN, a racing wire service operator, was slain. According to the newspapers and the opinion of others in the 24th Ward, it was strongly suspected that LEONARD PATRICK and DAVE YARAS were responsible for this killing.

In October, 1947, Captain CONNELLY and Lieutenant DRURY, suspended police officers, stated that it was alleged that the same persons, PATRICK, BLOCK and YARAS, were responsible for the shooting of "BUGSY SIEGEL", a West Coast racketeer with reported connections in the alleged Chicago crime syndicate, because of the modus operandi used in the shooting of SIEGEL. SIEGEL was in the California residence of VIRGINIA HILL, a girlfriend of his.

On September 10, 1948, LEONARD PATRICK was interviewed in connection with an investigation by the Chicago Office at which time he stated that he resided at 4248 West Congress Street, Chicago, and that he, with his brother, JACK PATRICK, operated the Lawndale Restaurant at 3714 West Roosevelt Road.

Regarding recent gangland killings in the Chicago area, specifically those of NORTON POLSKY, 1865 South Springfield Avenue, "LITTLE SNEEZE" FRIEDMAN, Midwest Athletic Club, and HARRY "The Horse" KROTISH, 1500 block of South St. Louis Avenue, PATRICK stated that in his opinion, all three of these individuals had been killed because, he heard, they were engaged in robberies of handbooks and gambling houses. He stated that none of their activities took place in the Roosevelt Road area. He stated he considered himself a close personal friend of all of the above individuals, however, he disclaimed any definite knowledge as to what their activities were prior to the time they were killed.

On March 10, 1958, CG T-24 advised that a WILLIAM DRURY, former Chicago Police Lieutenant, who was killed in gangland style on September 22, 1952, was a client of CG T-24. Again CG T-24 stated LEONARD PATRICK was one of the individuals responsible for DRURY's murder.

In a "Daily News" article dated January 5, 1953, concerning the slaying of MILTON GLICKMAN whose body was found in the trunk of his car on January 14, 1953, it was stated that the police were seeking LEONARD PATRICK, reputed syndicate boss of the West Side for questioning concerning the slaying. PATRICK was sought because of an unlisted temphone number of a man described as PATRICK's first lieutenant, one HERSHEY (HARRY) KOVIN, was found on GLICKMAN's body.

During November 1955, CG T-13 advised that LENNY PATRICK and DAVE YARAS were hired gunmen and killers for the Chicago 'syndicate.'

Miscellaneous

On December 10, 1958 CG T-16 advised that LENNY PATRICK controls the gambling for the syndicate in the West Roosevelt Road area and was not in the good graces of other syndicate hoodlums. According to CG T-16, the reason for this is that PATRICK has been muscling in on legitimate businessmen and bringing heat on the syndicate thereby.

The Chicago Crime Commission reported in a memorandum of March 26, 1947, information reflecting that DAVID YARAS and LENNY PATRICK, sought by the police, might be in Minneapolis, Minnesota, in the company of a LARRY DOYLE, a Twin-Cities hoodlum. It was learned that both these persons had been with DOYLE at his place of business but had left before Chicago police authorities reached town to apprehend them.

5 9