RE: JOSEPH FRANCIS ~~CIVELLO~~ aka
AR
(DL 92-36)

On 1/14/66, DL 275-C-TE (137-1733) advised that concerning the previous information indicating that JOE ~~CIVELLO~~ had fifty per cent of the bookmaking activity of the Italian group was his opinion and that he had no information to verify this. He stated that he is aware that PHILIP ~~BOSCO~~ (92-331) and CIVELLO are well acquainted and the fact that CIVELLO is aware of the Italians who are making book in the Dallas area. Informant related that he does know that BOSCO and STANFIELD only have twenty-five per cent each of their "union" and that the other fifty per cent would have to be owned by the individual or individuals bank rolling BOSCO and his associate, NORVELLE ~~STANFIELD~~ (165-153). Informant advised that he will attempt to make contacts in an effort to ascertain if CIVELLO is connected with BOSCO; however, it would be his opinion that BOSCO would be the only individual who would be aware of this connection.

RE: JAMES C. COLE;
CHARLES McNATT;
UNSUB; aka "POPS";
UNSUBS;
IGA
(DL 162-372)

On 1/5/66, DL 185-C (137-1387), advised that a large bookmaking operation was being conducted at the A-2 Liquor Store by above subjects. Informant related that in addition to the listed telephone number at the liquor store (TAYlor 3-0791), an unlisted number, which is also being used in the operation is TAYlor 6-1731. Informant also furnished information that an individual known to him as "POPS" placed a call to Los Angeles, California, and told an individual to bet on a horse "Hystria". He advised that this individual known as "POPS" also called several minutes later and asked about results of the races in California. He stated this individual also made a call to Chicago and asked to speak to a man named SAM SHEFFIELD. III

On 1/13/66, surveillances of the above liquor store by BuAgents determined that the store had numerous customers; however, only a few of the customers actually made purchases of whiskey or beer.

Investigation continuing to identify the individuals connected with the store and appearing at the place as possibility customers making bets on various sporting events.

The above information, relating to the subjects mentioned, was furnished to H. M. HART, Detective, Dallas PD and BOB MORGAN, Deputy Sheriff, Dallas County SO, on 1/17/66.
