On 5/9/66, JOSEPH CIVELLO was observed at the Airway Liquor Store at approximately 10:00 AM, conversing with his brother, CHARLES. At approximately 2:00 PM that same date, JOSEPH CIVELLO was observed working in the yard at his residence, 4908 Gulf Stream.

On 5/10/66, JOSEPH CIVELLO was again observed working in the yard at his residence at 9:30 AM until 10:45 AM. During the afternoon that same date, JOSEPH CIVELLO was observed working in the yard at his brother's residence at 3747 Sugar Mill Road.

On 5/11/66, JOSEPH CIVELLO was observed in his yard trimming shrubbery at 9:15 AM until approximately 9:40 AM. At 11:50 AM he was observed to arrive at Airway Liquor Store. At 1:50 PM that same date, he was observed working in the liquor store. At 5:30 PM that same date, 5/11/66, until 7:30 PM the subject's automobile and the automobile belonging to ROSS MUSSO were observed parked in the garage of the residence. No unusual activity was noted during this period.

On 5/12/66, surveillance was instituted in the area of JOSEPH CIVELLO's residence from 9:15 AM until approximately 1:00 PM. It was noted that CIVELLO's automobile was parked in the garage during this period, however, JOSEPH CIVELLO was not observed.

From 5:00 PM to 7:40 PM that same date, 5/12/66, surveillance in the area of CIVELLO's residence determined that his automobile and the automobile registered to ROSS MUSSO were parked in the garage and that no visitors were observed to visit at CIVELLO's residence.

RE: JOHNNIE ROSS PATRONO, aka
AR (DL 92-231)

Daily spot checks of the subject's residence at 4411 Munger has failed to indicate that the subject is having visitors at his residence. It is noted on one occasion that subject apparently had borrowed an automobile from Dallas bookmaker - used car dealer, BOBBY JOE CHAPMAN, in that a 1961 brown Buick convertible was observed parked in the driveway bearing dealer tags listed to CHAPMAN. It was also noted that apparently the subject's brother and mother are continuing the operation of wholesale meat business, operating from the residence. Texas

He stated he had received information that MATTHEWS was recently at the Cotton Bowl Bowling Alley, Inwood Road and Lemmon Avenue and was in a drunken condition and was threatening several of the patrons playing pool. Informant stated that a barber by occupation, approximately 65 years old allegedly pulled a gun on MATTHEWS and threatened to kill him. He stated that MATTHEWS allegedly backed down and commenced apologizing, which is an indication to the informant that MATTHEWS is not the strong arm hoodlum that he makes out to be. Texas
