DL 165-199

contacted concerning the captioned subject's present charges pending against him in the USDC, NDT, under the ITAR - GAMBLING Statute. TIMMINS indicated he plans to try MEADOWS and his associate EDWARD VINCENT DRISCOLL in the USDC, 3/29/65. TIMMINS advised that if possible, it may be pertinent to the prosecution in this matter if the Richardson PD could possibly raid the subject's apartment a few days before the trial in an effort to upset MEADOWS and the plans of his attorneys.

Information concerning the ITAR - GAMBLING Statue covered in Dallas file 166-84, Bufile 166-491.

On 1/23/65, DL 181-C advised that he has no information concerning MEADOWS operating as a bookmaker in the Dallas area.

On 2/3/65, DL 185-C and DL 197-C advised that they had no information concerning MEADOWS present activities. For information of the Bureau, this investigation is predicated when DL 208-PC furnished information on 12/11/64, that ALBERT MEADOWS was operating a book from Richardson, Texas, using Dallas, Texas, telephone Number AD 5-7167. Informant advised that he had received the information MEADOWS had set up his operation at the beginning of the 1964 football season. Informant stated that he had not personally made a bet with MEADOWS at the above phone number nor did he know the location of the apartment.

It was subsequently ascertained from the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, Dallas, that telephone number AD 5-7167 is listed to ROY C. MANNING, Apartment 7, 108 S. Bowser, Richardson, Texas, and was connected on 9/24/65.

The information from Southwestern Bell Telephone Company was furnished to SA IVAN D. LEE by MRS. BULA SUTTLE, Secretary, Office of the Security Supervisor.
