and research of John Greenewald, Jr., creator of:

The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

BINION stated during February he had been contacted by an Italian by the name of LOCATTO (phonetic) who stated he had some word from another Italian in Los Angeles who had served time with BINION in the U.S. Penitentiary at Leavenworth. BINION stated the information was of no value to anyone and he thought the main purpose of this contact was to try to get some money from him.

BINION was contacted during March 1959, concerning suspects in an Interstate Transportation of Stolen Motor Vehicle case entitled JOHN E. CHAMBERS; UNSUB, (2) Roy McGrath; Ron Chambers, SU 26-17802; who had contacted him while in Las Vegas. BINION furnished information concerning the automobile that JOHN CHAMBERS, et al, were driving which was of assistance to Bureau Agents in identifying UNSUBS. Prosecution in this case was subsequently declined.
