LV 92-391

LV 108 PC who has knowledge of the operation and personnel of the Horseshoe Club advised on 8/30/63 that at approximately 1:45 p.m. on this date, an unknown individual appeared in the casino of the Horseshoe Club carrying a small black bag. This individual was met near the Keno cage by the subject and this individual at that time opened the bag momentarily to show the subject the contents. Informant stated that he, [REDACTED] a pit boss, and one of the Keno dealers, got a change to glance into the bag and according to the informant, this bag contained numerous $100.00 bills.

OTHER 4

Informant advised that very shortly thereafter, DEAN "CHET" WILLIAMS, an associate of the subject's at the Horseshoe Club, joined the unknown individual and the subject. This group then immediately departed the club by way of the Second Street entrance and walked North on Second Street.

Informant has never seen this unknown individual before, nor did any of the other employees of the Club seem to know this individual's identity. The individual was described as a white male about 45 years of age, stocky build, 5' 6" to 5' 8" tall and semi-bald.

Informant advised on 10/28/63 that no one at the club has mentioned anything concerning this money or the unknown individual who was at the club on 8/30/63, nor has he seen this individual since that time.

No information to date has been developed concerning the identity of this individual who contacted the subject, and WILLIAMS at the Horseshoe Club, nor has any other source of the Las Vegas or El Paso Divisions furnished any information regarding this individual or the money.

The above information furnished by LV 108 PC is not being included in the details of this report due to the limited number of individuals having knowledge of this matter.
