around the yard and the property is in his name, although he intends to make out a lease in another man's name prior to beginning operations. Informant advised that accordingly, ORRELS left Gulfport, Miss., with WHITE at about 1:30 p.m., 2/18/65, accompanied by "BIG ALICE" ROGERS and LINDA FELDMAN, ^{Miss} two prostitutes from Biloxi, Miss., and an unknown WM, the latter being about 5'10" or 11" tall, stocky build. Informant advised that they were to drive to Meridian, Miss., and ORRELS and WHITE were to proceed on to Corinth, in WHITE's automobile. Informant advised that ORRELS went prepared to stay 2-3 weeks and it was understood that the completed still would deliver between 1,000 and 1,500 gallons of moonshine whiskey every 10 days to two weeks. Informant advised that WHITE assured ORRELS that he had a "solid fix" with the COP at Corinth, Miss., as well as the Sheriff of the County, and WHITE made the specific statement that he had a "fix" anywhere in the State of Mississippi with the exception of Federal authorities.

Informant advised she was in a position to be kept advised of this operation, adding that virtually every known thief in the southeastern part of the U. S. now hangs out at WHITE's Shamrock, rather than as previously at NOFIO PECORARO's Tropical Tourist Courts in New Orleans. In this connection, informant advised that ADELBERT O'NEAL, aka Del O'Neal, "Little Governor," a well known conman from Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., has a brother who operates a tavern or gambling joint near Corinth, Miss. Informant advised that from what she has been able to determine, O'NEAL's brother, name unknown, apparently is considered to be a "square" by the hoodlums. ^{Lo}

By communication dated 2/27/65, the Jackson Division advised in part that a 1965 Chrysler bearing 1964 Tennessee license AM 6308, VIN C453122211, had been abandoned in Lauderdale Co., Miss., and the license was registered to a 1965 Lincoln in the name CARL D. WHITE, Michie, Tenn. Subsequently under date of 3/11/65, Jackson advised in part that PCI of the Jackson Office, on 3/19/65, admitted that on 2/23/65, he was engaged in a chase by Meridian Police Officers. He said he outran the police, parked the vehicle, got out and locked it. He admitted he left a gun in the vehicle and stated that he had determined that the fine on the owner of the vehicle was approximately $485. He sent an individual whom he did not identify to Meridian to pay the fine and recover the car.
