Miss Teste stated that the Alpha 66-II Front-MRP was working very quietly and in the immediate future would be fighting inside Cuba. NY T-1 advised that Miss Teste said that her organization would not be inside Cuba by May 20, 1964, as this was too early but would be there shortly thereafter. (u) FIA P.R. CWBA

NY T-1 also advised on May 13, 1964, that in a letter received from his niece who recently had a letter from Joaquin Godoy of the MRP, Godoy wrote that there was no agreement between their organization and the JURE of Manolo Ray.
