No record could be found in the indices of this office on the following:

N. KOROBOFF
United Music Sales Corporation
J.R. BROWN or RYVICHIN YAMAZUCHI

The indices indicated that TOKUHEI IWABUCHI once registered as an alien enemy but no other information was available.

E.W. REYNOLDS COMPANY is listed in the phone book as a jewelers supply. WILLIAMS and PETERSEN is also a jewelers' supply. The telephone book lists at 539 Hayes Street, the United Record Sales and the indices contain no record on this company. The identity of the Russian Music Company, Inc. has been previously mentioned.

In regard to N. BAZANOFF it is noted that the only reference in this office indicates that RUSSIAN LIFE newspaper for March 2, 1948, indicated that NIKOLAI BAZANOV and wife YULIA arrived in San Francisco on the General Meigs on March 3, 1948. This newspaper on March 18, 1948 indicated that N.F. and YULIA S. BAZANOV had attended a meeting at the Russian Center.

Paul Dimitry Kalv

In regard to the name P.D. KALV, it is noted that RUSSIAN LIFE newspaper April 3, 1948 reprinted an article published in a Monterey, California, newspaper regarding the new military school at Monterey, California. This article indicated that the two major departments in foreign languages were Japanese and Russian Schools. Among the instructors listed was a Captain P.D. KALV. In regard to PETER P. GREGORY it is noted that SF-9 advised this office in 1941 that a PETER PAUL GREGORY (formerly GRIGORIEFF) was in San Francisco, August 18, 1941 at which time he was reported as making some effort to get a business connection for his brother PETER GRIGORIEFF then residing at Mantetsu, Honshu, Dairen, Manchukio; brother wrote that he might come to the United States. GREGORY was reported to be a petroleum engineer and gave his address as P.O. Box 578, Iran, Texas. It was noted that SF-9 reported MICHAEL PETER GREGORIEFF as then being employed by the South Manchurian Railway in Dairen and was formerly a White Russian officer who had gone there in 1920 and married a Japanese woman. GREGORIEFF had been reported as speaking, reading and writing Japanese better than most educated Japanese and it was indicated he had attended a Russian military school in Chita, Siberia, during his youth. As an observation it is noted that GREGORIEFF appears to be the maiden name of BENTHEN's wife.
