Re Bern letter 4/10/63, entitled "ARMAND DIAZ CERAMI:AR". 4

This will advise that information furnished by the Bern Office regarding telephone calls made by subject or GEORGE LANGLEY from Lausanne and Clarens, Switzerland, to Monte Carlo, Monaco, Beaulieu and Cannes, France, was furnished to the Police Judiciaire (Criminal Police), Sûreté Nationale (PJSN) and the Monaco Police on 2/28/63 with a request for investigation to determine the identity of the persons called if possible. X (u)

The Monaco Police advised by letter of 3/18/63 that telephone number 308080 and 308244 in Monaco are registered to the Hotel de Paris and the Hotel de la Reserve et de Suisse respectively in Monte Carlo. Inquiries made of telephone operators in these two hotels in an attempt to identify the persons receiving these calls resulted negatively. The telephone operators indicated that no records are kept of incoming calls and any notes made at the time the calls are completed are destroyed immediately thereafter. X (u)

The Monaco Police also pointed out that the month of August is the height of the tourist season and, therefore, it is impossible to review hotel registers in order to choose names of persons who may have been called by TOURINE or LANGLEY. X (u)
