The Bureau agents who were participating in a surveillance of ANGELO BRUNO on March 1, 1963, and observed the subject at the Playboy Barber Shop, Bay Harbor Islands, are SA JACK LOUIS MARSHALL, SA WILLIAM F. KUSCH and SA FRANK FOREE, JR. 4

Mr. SHELDON KRANTZ, Assistant Departmental Attorney, advised SA JACK LOUIS MARSHALL on February 27, 1963, that subpoenas for the hearing to determine the subject's assets were served and the hearing was scheduled for February 20, 1963. Mr. KRANTZ said that in a preliminary conversation with FRANK STEINBERG, attorney for the subject, STEINBERG suggested a partial settlement of the IRS Judgement in 1944 against TOURINE for the amount of $2800. STEINBERG said the government was attempting to embarrass TOURINE by holding this hearing and that TOURINE did not have the $2800 at this time. Mr. KRANTZ said the government rejected

STEINBERG's offer and made plans to go ahead with the hearing.

On February 18, 1963, STEINBERG came into the Departmental Attorney's office in Miami and paid the $2800 commenting that "CHARLIE has good friends." The proceedings were then dismissed and the subpoenas were canceled.

The following information is not being reported outside the Bureau by request of the Richmond Office: RH 95-C telephonically advised SA HOWARD E. RICHARDSON on March 21, 1963, that during the first part of this week he was talking with FRANK NALLS of the Nalls-Carter Gambling Operation (RH file 168-24). NALLS stated that he had on Monday or Tuesday night been at the Jefferson Corporation located at the Arlington Towers Shopping Center, Arlington, Virginia, where he met and had a long discussion with JOE NESLINE and CHARLIE WHITE (CHARLIE, the Blade, TOURINE).

NESLINE and WHITE advised NALLS that they now have a "big crap game" going in Maryland, which is located in an old hunting lodge between Waldorf and LaPlata, Maryland. They stated that many of their customers are coming from Richmond and other Virginia points as well as from the District of Columbia.
