B. APPROX.

A source advised on December 5, 1953, that the name Mrs. ANGELINE THOMAS, 813 Lowrie Place, appeared on a mailing list of subscribers to the "National Guardian". Source stated that it was believed the above mailing list was somewhat out of date. u

The Committee on Un-American Activities report, "Trial by Treason", the National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell, August 25, 1956, page 12, cited the "National Guardian" as a publication established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a progressive weekly. It was reported further that although it denies having any affiliation with the Communist Party (CP), it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia. u

On October 30, 1956, a source made available an index card bearing the name of Mrs. ANGELINE THOMAS, 813 Lowrie Place, N. E. On November 15, 1956, the source advised that the above-mentioned index card was one of the index cards deleted in October, 1956, from a group of cards maintained by GERTRUDE EVANS for mailing purposes by the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia, the Washington Area Forum, the Washington Freedom of the Press Committee and the Washington Sobell Committee. u

A source advised on February 26, 1953, that GERTRUDE EVANS was a current member of the CP. u

Sources advised in 1952, 1953 and 1955 that the leaders of the Progressive Party of the District of Columbia were either CP members or CP sympathizers. u

A source advised in March of 1957 that GERTRUDE EVANS was the Executive Secretary of the Washington Area Citizens Forum, which name was later changed to the Washington Area Forum.

A source advised on May 21, 1956, that the Washington Sobell Committee was the name of the District of Columbia chapter of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case.

A source advised on June 24, 1955, that the Washington Freedom of the Press Committee was an innocuously named instrument of the CP devised to build up financial and local support for the "Daily Worker" and "The Worker".

It was determined that the above-mentioned ANGELINE THOMAS, who was born October 24, 1919, in Tyrawley, Louisiana, married LEON HENRY THOMAS in 1942, and that in 1947, they resided at 2817 26th Street, N. E. It was also determined that this LEON HENRY THOMAS, in 1957, was employed as a truck driver for the Department of the Army.

The records of The Credit Bureau, Inc., Washington, D. C., disclosed that judgments were obtained for failure to completely pay District of Columbia income tax against LEON and ANGELINE THOMAS, 2817 26th Street, N. E., on December 11, 1961, July 21, 1964, and January 20, 1966.
