JOHN MARTINEZ, High Life Grille, 1937 Mahoning, NE, Canton, Ohio, residence, 336 Rice, Canton, advised SA J. CALVIN RICE on October 21, 1958, that he was the brother of LOUIS MARTINEZ. He stated that LOUIS was born with a paralyzed arm but graduated from law school about 1949, after which he practiced law for a short time in Canton. Thereafter LOUIS started writing bad checks and getting into trouble, causing JOHN MARTINEZ and the family to "pay him out". JOHN MARTINEZ stated that his brother had moved out of the family home in Canton and lived for a short time in Wooster, Ohio, where he was friendly with NICK TRIKILIS and reportedly owned an interest in the Aranair Corporation in that city. JOHN MARTINEZ stated that his brother, LOUIS, always talked about how he was going to make a lot of money but actually had never made any and as a matter of fact owes everyone in Canton.

JOSEPH MARTINEZ, SR., 336 Rice Street, Canton, Ohio, advised on October 21, 1958, that his son, LOUIS MARTINEZ, had continually caused the family embarrassment because of his activities. He stated that LOUIS MARTINEZ had graduated from Ohio State University in 1948 but had practiced law for only a very short time in Canton where he had an office in the Dime Bank Building.

On October 21, 1958, WILLIAM ALFREZ, owner, Bilyn's Restaurants, 215 Court, NW, advised SA JAMES E. GILLEY that he had known LOUIS MARTINEZ ever since they lived in the same neighborhood as children. ALFREZ stated that at the present time MARTINEZ owes him a total of about $7,200.00 for debts, notes and various business ventures which had failed to materialize. He stated that about six months previously, MARTINEZ had a bill sent to his restaurant for three plane flights from Canton, Ohio, to Kansas City, Miami and Chicago, though he, ALFREZ, had not authorized any such travel by MARTINEZ. He stated, however, that he was required to pay the cost of these flights, a total of $337.00.

On November 6, 1958, PETE SHRUM, State Hotel, Canton, Ohio, advised SA LEONARD V. DAHL as follows:

[] a truck driver for the Canton Sewer Department, advised that one of his fellow employees, TOM MUSAT, known as "POMPS", appears to be a good friend of LOUIS MARTINEZ. [] stated that during the previous week MUSAT had asked him, [] if he would be interested in going to Cuba as a "soldier of fortune". When he asked

MUSAT if MARTINEZ could set this up for him, MUSAT stated that MARTINEZ had the connections to get him down there and they already had one boy from Canton fighting for CASTRO.

On January 6, 1959, [] advised SA HAROLD E. WEIDA that he had seen LOUIS MARTINEZ on two occasions since November, 1958, both times in the High Life Bar in Canton. [] stated that on the last occasion MARTINEZ mentioned that within four to five days the rebels would know how many men they would need to gain victory in Cuba, indicating at that time that either the rebel cause would be victorious or they would be in a position of needing additional men and equipment. MARTINEZ made no further mention of the need for men in Cuba and made no specific request at that time that [] travel to Cuba to engage in the revolution.

On October 21, 1958, P. TOM MUSAT, 1805 Seventh Street, NE, Canton, Ohio, advised SA GILLEY that he had been a close friend of LOUIS MARTINEZ for a number of years and had no knowledge of the latter's friends, associates or activities.

On November 3, 1958, LOUIS MARTINEZ, Canton, Ohio, was interviewed at his request by SAs GILLEY and WEIDA. At this time MARTINEZ stated that in January, 1958, in Miami, Florida, he had met FRANCISCO VARONA, a political exile from Cuba, through MANUEL ALONSO of Canton, Ohio, VARONA's wife's uncle.

MARTINEZ also stated that his arrest in New York City in October, 1958, was unwarranted because he had had no connection with the kidnapping of SIDNEY NEUBAUER. He stated that his only interest was in obtaining the release of NEUBAUER and securing the return of money which PETER LEBLOVIC had received from Cuban students for arms and medicines to be purchased for the Cuban rebels.

MARTINEZ stated that he has never purchased any airplanes and knew nothing of the purchase of planes in Toronto, Canada.
