Miami LHM dated 2-28-74 sets forth information received from a confidential source indicating that captioned subject was allegedly responsible for the arrest in Panama of GABRIEL GREGORIO RODRIGUEZ who was suspected of plotting against the TORRIJOS Government in Panama. RODRIGUEZ was arrested by Panamanian authorities. He was interviewed at length on numerous occasions and gave statements concerning his participation in efforts to raise money for a possible coup against the Government of Panama. RODRIGUEZ was sentenced to 5 years imprisonment on the Island of Coiba in Panama during late November. However, information was received to the effect that RODRIGUEZ was to be released and returned to the United States. Panamanian authorities requested to be advised as to whether or not RODRIGUEZ was wanted in the U. S.

FIA

A warrant for RODRIGUEZ'S arrest is outstanding at Bergen County, New Jersey, charging him with fraud. Bergen County authorities, however, when contacted indicated that although they have a warrant for RODRIGUEZ they would not request his informal deportation or extradition from Panama at this time inasmuch as the principal witness against RODRIGUEZ is uncooperative.

On 12-9-74, Panamanian authorities indicated that they are considering deporting RODRIGUEZ from the country and would put him on a plane for Miami in the near future.
