Re: CARLOS RAFAEL RODRIGUEZ RODRIGUEZ

T-1, (a confidential source abroad) advises that there has been no indication the subject has attempted to enter the United States since October 8, 1950, when he was detained by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service at Ellis Island, New York, and later sent back to Havana, Cuba.

T-1 advises that the subject is still a member of the National Executive Committee of the PARTIDO SOCIALISTA POPULAR (PSP, Cuban Communist Party). T-1 advises that the subject's complete name is CARLOS RAFAEL RODRIGUEZ RODRIGUEZ and that he is currently active in the clandestine affairs of the PSP in Havana.

T-1 described subject as being the most intelligent of the present leaders of the Party. He advised that although subject is believed to be residing in Havana, his exact residence is unknown.

T-2, another Government agency which conducts intelligence investigations, advised that on November 11, 1953, the subject and CESAR VILAR, leaders of the PSP, met with Dr. JOSE PEREZ LAMY and Dr. ANGEL ALBERTO GIRAUDY, Cuban Supreme Court Justice, at the latter's home to discuss the manner in which an appeal of unconstitutionality against the Presidential Decree which declared the PSP illegal should best be presented before the Court of Social and Constitutional Guarantees. In discussing the legal points involved in this appeal, RODRIGUEZ and VILAR asked GIRAUDY to help the PSP obtain a favorable decision in this case by speaking beforehand with the Justice of the Tribunal de Garantias (Court of Social and Constitutional Guarantees). GIRAUDY promised to do so. (u)

T-2, who advised that the above information was possibly true and came from a usually reliable source, stated that the above discussion pertained to Cuban Law Decree 1170, effective November 9, 1953, which declared the PSP and Communism illegal in Cuba. T-2 also identified Dr. PEREZ LAMY as the lawyer who has defended PSP officials in the past. (u)
