A. PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

On July 30, 1958, the New Orleans Office furnished the following information:

On June 23, 1958, Chief of Police R. H. O'NEAL, Springhill, Louisiana, advised SA DONALD L. BELMONT that Health Department birth records for Springhill would be maintained at Parish Headquarters in Minden, Louisiana.

On July 18, 1958, VERA D. MATTHEWS, Webster Parish Health Department, advised that there are no birth records on file with that department for births prior to 1930, and that anything prior to that time would have to be obtained through records at New Orleans.

On July 23, 1958, EILEEN A. RICCA, Clerk, Louisiana State Bureau of Vital Statistics, Civil Court Building, New Orleans, advised SA ERNEST M. SMITH that a check of the records of that office failed to reflect any birth record of the subject.

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On August 18, 1958, SA ROBERT M. BARRETT observed POPE at the residence of his mother, Mrs. ETHA POPE at 9430 Newhall Street, Dallas. (The name of the street has been recently changed from Bosque to Newhall.)

On August 11, 1958, Dallas Confidential Informant T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that POPE's girl friend, DOROTHY ONEITA LANGDON, had recently returned to her home in Moberly, Missouri, but was maintaining contact with POPE through T-2's phone. T-2 had ascertained that LANGDON was contacting POPE from Moberly phone 3746J. The above information was furnished the St. Louis Office by Dallas on August 22, 1958. On August 11, 1958, T-2 also advised that POPE is continuing to reside with his mother on Newhall Street and had not acquired an automobile, preferring to use associates' automobiles.

On September 8, 1958, Dallas Confidential Informant T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that POPE continues to reside at his mother's place and is associating with a prostitute, ex-convict and narcotics addict PEGGY ANN FRY. FBI #176630B.

bald, heavily built man, got out of the Pontiac and went into the weeds nearby. He apparently picked up something, unwrapped it and threw the wrappings away. After this he got back into the car and the two men drove off. The kids followed them a short distance and observed that the Pontiac had a 1958 Texas license with the prefix MR and believed to contain the numerals 8 and 6.

A search was made of the area where one of these men was observed to throw something down and officers found a road map of Texas on which was stuck a quantity of a gray friction-type tape as though it had been wrapped around something. Near it was a plastic laundry bag with the words "Cannon-Hale Cleanres, Henderson, Texas". Contact by the Natchez Police Department with the Sheriff at Henderson and the Ranger at Sherman developed as suspects WALTER MACK BARNES, a safe man with a Pontiac believed identical, and an ex-convict with whom he has been friends, SEAPERNE JAMES "BALDY" WHATLEY. Warrants were issued by city authorities at Natchez and the Dallas Police Department requested to arrest these subjects. Instead, POPE was arrested as it was established that he was a narcotics addict as well as a safe man, had been friends with BARNES and had a large quantity of morphine stolen in instant burglary.

Tools left at the scene of the burglary consisted of a large German-made sledge, painted blue with a handle bound in gray friction-type tape, assorted punches, chisels and drills. All of these were new. This material, along with the road map, laundry bag and money wrappers from change taken from BARNES at the time of his arrest in Dallas, have been sent to the FBI Laboratory.

On August 19, 1958, Sheriff BILL DECKER advised that he had received information from Natchez, Mississippi authorities that the burglary process against POPE and BARNES had been dismissed because of lack of evidence. Sheriff DECKER stated he had also received information from his reliable informants that POPE had not been involved in this burglary but that BARNES was.

On August 21, 1958, Dallas T-2 advised that he had obtained information that POPE was definitely not involved in this burglary, but from conversation that T-2 had heard between POPE, BARNES and CARTER, that CARTER was the possible accomplice of BARNES at Natchez. POPE had told T-2 that BARNES was involved
