OTHER 4

At the present time it is believed that the informant coverage of POPE is adequate, and it is believed if POPE becomes active in Dallas area, such activity will become known to one or more of the above informants.

Dallas Office is placing this matter in pending inactive status for a period of 90 days. Any investigation conducted at the present time would be a fugitive-type investigation, and a duplication of efforts presently being conducted by local Dallas law enforcement agencies. It is also believed by the Dallas Office, that through contacts with the above informants, Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas Sheriff's Office, and Lt. JACK REVILL, Criminal Intelligence Section, Dallas PD, and through the investigation of MARION ROBERT RAIF, aka., Dallas top local hoodlum and associate of POPE, any pertinent information concerning POPE will become known, or ascertained.

DL 92-34

On March 10, 1959, JARRELL LEE CARTER was interviewed by Bureau Agents, at which time he was asked about POPE's whereabouts. He stated he did not know, but if he did, he would not tell any law enforcement agency. He left the impression that POPE was alive and doing everything possible to avoid apprehension.

On March 7, 1959, Mrs. RUBY JELSEN, 4515 Swiss Avenue, Apartment 9, mother of PEGGY FRY, advised her daughter had left her about two months previously with POPE, and she had not had any contact with either since. She claimed she had absolutely no information concerning their present whereabouts.

On March 4, 1959, Mrs. C. W. DICKERSON, landlady at 4515 Swiss Avenue, advised she had never seen POPE at the apartment rented by RUBY JELSEN and her daughter, PEGGY FRY, in November, 1958. Mrs. DICKERSON stated she would contact the FBI if POPE or FRY appeared at the apartment house. She stated she had not seen PEGGY FRY since early January, 1959.

On March 22, 1959, DL T-1 advised that on March 21, 1959, ex-convict SONNY LEFORS, had contacted DL T-1, attempting to locate POPE, as LEFORS wanted POPE to join him on a proposed burglary. DL T-1 stated he has no word from POPE since early February, 1959. DL T-1 also advised on April 16, 1959, that POPE's $3,000 bond in Dallas District Court, had been defaulted, since his failure to appear following the fuling of the state court of appeals.
