On 8/18/59 FRYE's sister, MARGORIE LOFTICE, was reinterviewed as a matter of routine and in order to allay any suspicions by her. LOFTICE denied any contact with any known persons or with FRYE or POPE since last interviewed. She stated that about two weeks ago she got a call from an unidentified man who stated he wanted to talk to FRYE. LOFTICE stated she had forgot to contact the FBI concerning this call as she had previously promised.

Sheriff BILL DECKER, Dallas SO, on 8/18/59 advised he had received an anonymous tip that on 8/17/59 POPE and/or FRYE had contacted Fort Worth police character ANGELO THOMAS CASTEN requesting financial assistance. CASTEN has been interviewed on numerous occasions by Bureau Agents and has been most uncooperative.

On 8/18/59 BILL ALEXANDER, Dallas County Assistant District Attorney, advised he had information from a police character whom he described as a reliable source, as follows:

When questioned by ALEXANDER concerning the whereabouts of POPE, source stated he had not seen POPE but that a friend of his (the source) had seen POPE about a week ago at a trailer lot operated by FLOYD VINCENT's widow (LOIS VINCENT) near Richland Hills, a suburb of Fort Worth. The source stated it was his understanding that POPE had been in contact on numerous occasions with LOIS VINCENT during the past two or three months and that while POPE was "partying with LOIS" PEGGY FRYE was "partying" with police character, WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN NEWMAN. The source had no information that POPE and FRYE had split up. Investigation to verify this information is presently being conducted by Dallas at Fort Worth.

On 8/18/59 Detective H. M. HART, Dallas PD, Criminal Intelligence Section, advised he had information that the bail bond money, $15,000, recently put up for the release of LILA JO BENTLEY, POPE's ex-wife, consisted of $10,000 on a property bond signed by LILLY IRBY, BENTLEY's aunt, and $5,000 put up by POPE. HART stated his informant told him that POPE makes contact with IRBY for relay to BENTLEY through IRBY's brother in Lewisville, Texas. LILLY IRBY has been previously interviewed on two occasions by Bureau agents concerning this bond and contacts with POPE and has vigorously denied the above allegation.

Oklahoma City at Midwest City through telephone company immediately ascertain any long distance calls made by PCI [redacted] [redacted] If information developed is pertinent, sutel Dallas in view of arrangements being made for 8/21/59 concerning coverage of [redacted] at Dallas.
