Subject: WILLIAM ALEXANDER MORGAN
IS - CUBA

ReBulet 7/15/60. (u)

For the information of the Bureau, MARCEL CHALET of the Direction de la Surveillance du Territoire (DST), French domestic counterespionage service, furnished a report in French on 7/20/60. The report indicated that the WILLIAM MORGAN who had attracted their attention in France was not identical with the WILLIAM MORGAN, an American, who is believed to be presently residing in Cuba. They advised that one WILLIAM MORGAN is a signatory to a tract of the Directoire Revolutionnaire Iberique de Liberations (a revolutionary group for the liberation of the Iberian Peninsula), a subversive organization created in Cuba for the purpose of fomenting troubles in Spain and Portugal. (S)

The DST report indicated that they have just established that the WILLIAM MORGAN who was the object of their investigation is actually a Spaniard residing at Toulouse, France, who used the pseudonym of WILLIAM MORGAN. CHALET advised confidentially that it is suspected by the DST that this individual is an agent of the Spanish Security Service. CHALET requested that this information not be disseminated outside the Bureau. CHALET advised that this individual participated in the recruitment of PEREZ JURADO, one of the victims of the bombing attack in Madrid in February, 1960. (S)
