Re Bureau letter, 12/22/60.

On 12/30/60, ADRIAN NARANJO, (protect identity), Operations Department, Cubana Airlines, International Airport, Miami, Florida, advised that as a matter of course, the local office of Cubana Airlines receives copies of the passenger manifests for only those flights which either emanate in Miami or terminate in Miami.
Copies of such passenger manifests are available to NARANJO.

In addition to the Havana to Miami and return flights, the company has scheduled flights from Havana to New York and return; Havana to Madrid, Spain and return; Havana to Mexico and return; and Havana to Prague, Czechoslovakia and return. Regarding these flights NARANJO stated that copies of passenger manifests for flights either emanating or terminating in New York are not available. He explained he does not have any contacts in the New York Office of Cubana Airlines who can be trusted to obtain such manifests.

Regarding flights emanating or terminating in Havana, he advised he has a contact in the Havana Office of Cubana Airlines who has access to the manifests of such flights, and who will attempt to obtain copies of passenger manifests for such flights. NARANJO advised, however, that his source indicated that he could not guarantee that he
