WEINSTOCK has also indicated he was going after the Czechoslovakian trading organization, TAUSEG, and other socialist bloc countries' trading organizations to get them to give ads for TW. (S)

[NY 599-S*] (S)(u) furnished the following on 2/9/61:

The following was learned at CP, USA headquarters, NYC, on 2/8/61: (S)(u)

LOUIS WEINSTOCK, of TW, and PAT TOOHEY, New Jersey State CP Chairman, engaged in a conversation concerning TW. (S)(u)

TOOHEY stated that many CP members preferred to read the "National Guardian" because they feel they get more information from it. The "Guardian" contains well-written articles, news analyses, and much informative data. TW, TOOHEY said, has no analyses or news articles, but contains only what appears to be rewrites of articles in the daily press. The coverage of Latin America by TW is poor and the paper has no real foreign editor. The "New York Times", he said, has three or four pages of foreign news daily, but TW has little or none. TW, in many instances, fails to bring out the CP viewpoint on many important happenings throughout the world. (S)(u)

WEINSTOCK agreed that TW has no adequate journalistic staff, adding that he has been managing TW for one year but has lost ground. He said that after a year-long energetic campaign, he succeeded in getting 500 new subscriptions but has lost 600. (S)(u)

(CG 5824-S*)^{(S)(u)} furnished the following on 2/16/61:

JOSEPH NORTH, Foreign Correspondent for TW, has requested that the CP, USA, allow him to remain in Cuba for an additional six months period. This request had been initiatly refused by the CP, USA. (S)(u)

During the latter part of the week of 2/5/61, PHIL BART advised that a second letter had been received from NORTH, in which he again requested an extention of his stay in Cuba. (S)(u)

According to BART, NORTH will now be advised that he can remain in Cuba but will be taken off the payroll of TW. BART stated it will be suggested to NORTH that he attempt to work on the new English language newspaper which is being established in Cuba. (S)(u)
