At a meeting held at Steinway Hall, 111 W. 57th St., NYC on 7/21/60, Richard Gibson was named Chairman of the NYC Chapter of the FPCC.

(S)(U)

In October, 1960, NY-2208-S* reported that Isidore Gibby Needleman (100-341652) informed Irving Beinin that evidence was available which indicated that Richard Gibson was "a most unreliable person," who, while in Europe, carried on "shenanigans" which would lead one to believe that he was "practically an agent." Needleman wondered whether the FPCC would react and help to get rid of Gibson if this information were relayed to them. Beinin recommended that the matter not be discussed until it could be told to some responsible person. Needleman promised Beinin that he would show him a letter about Gibson that had come from Paris, France, and to explain what it was all about.

(S)

NY-711-S* advised in 1959 that Beinin was at that time affiliated with the Independent-Socialist Party.

NY-1286-S* advised in October, 1960, that Needleman had revealed that James Aronson had obtained some information on one Gibson (possibly Richard Gibson of the FPCC).

Molerio told Orlando to tell Leon (possibly Jorge Leon, Secretary of Organizations, July 26th Movement) to be sure to pick up that "thing" at Gibson's house for Friday (possibly Richard Gibson of the FPCC). Molerio said he would take the material to Room 207 at the Cuban Mission to the UN after he picked it up at Apartment 536, 80 E. 11th St.
