SECRET

The attached list of U. S. citizens political prisoners furnishes further information on this matter.

Along the same trend, all the above prisoners have accepted to change the kaki uniform they were using, which carried the letters "P" (political prisoner), for a dark blue uniform of very coarse material without any identification. The only exception has been Juan TUR, who on account of his rebelliousness has been punished to remain incommunicated and is not, therefore, allowed to receive the monthly visit from his relatives.

It should be also mentioned that political prisoners Elisa Catalina DIAZ BIART, Pauline TURCHECK, Mildred VEGA and John SPIRITTO have voluntarily taken advantage of the rehabilitation plan.

HEALTH AND FOOD:

Mr. Herbert CAUDILL, who is on parole, home confined, has satisfactorily recovered the almost complete sight of his right eye, after being operated on by Dr. William Nagler. CUBA USA

The Swiss Embassy has officially requested the corresponding Cuban authorities to have a bladder operation performed on prisoner Rafael del PINO; an operation for cataracts on Edelmiro RAMOS RAMOS, and an electroencephalography made to Irving Richard POYLE.

According to information furnished by relatives, the health of the other prisoners is in general satisfactory, as well as their morale. They emphasize, however, that food in the prisons is very bad and deficient, while in State farms, although somewhat better, it is still far from good.

The Embassy has been delivering every month to relatives of the prisoners a package containing ten pounds of sundry food furnished by the American Red Cross, intended to be taken to them on the occasion of their monthly visit.

It is the prisoners' opinion that the present ration of powder milk should be increased from two to five pounds per month. They would also desire to have some medicines available for minor diseases of the stomach, kidneys and liver, as well as vitamins. They are also in need of undershirts, sweaters and shoes. The Embassy will keep these requirements in mind when placing the next order with the American Red Cross.

GENERAL VISIT:

Notwithstanding the several written and verbal requests presented to the Cuban authorities to the effect, the Swiss Ambassador, Mr. Alfred Fischli, is still awaiting the necessary authorization to pay an official visit to each U. S. citizen political prisoner.
