ReBulet dated 11/8/62 to WFO, captioned [redacted] (S)

PSI - DESECO - R" (S)

Relet refers to information furnished by PSI [redacted] (S) (whose identity is to be kept confidential) ascertaining the attempted compromise of ALINE MOSBY, a United Press International (UPI) correspondent in Moscow. ReBulet points out that ALINE MOSBY has been considered a possible suspect in instant case, and that the possibility exists that the Soviet activity succeeded in such compromise efforts.

ReBulet instructs present assignment of Miss MOSBY be ascertained.

The above-mentioned PSI [redacted] who is a newspaperman employed at UPI, advised SA TOLLEF JACOBSON on 11/25/62, that the instance previously described by him in which the Russians attempted to compromise ALINE MOSBY presumably occurred some time within approximately the last 6 months to a year, inasmuch as, according to [redacted] Miss MOSBY was transferred from her UPI assignment at Moscow about 6 months ago, as a result of the instance referred to. [redacted] said Miss MOSBY, at that time, was transferred from Moscow to Paris, France, and he knows she is still in Paris, because he has recently seen her byline on a news story emanating from that city.

In view of the above information concerning the whereabouts of ALINE MOSBY, no further consideration is being given to her as a possible suspect in instant case, inasmuch as the unsub is understood to be located in the Washington, D. C. area.
