IN VIEW OF THE HIGHLY SENSITIVE POSITION OF NY 3653-S*, EXTREME CAUTION MUST BE EXERCISED IN HANDLING ANY INFORMATION ATTRIBUTED TO THIS SOURCE AND NO ACTION TAKEN WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY JEOPARDIZE THE SECURITY OF THE INFORMANT OR REVEAL HIS IDENTITY.

On 4/27/66, NY 3653-S* was interviewed by SAS HARRY E. MORRIS, JR., and VINCENT J. CAHILL. In the course of that interview, the informant furnished the following information:

KGB Employees Of NY Residency On "Lookout" For YURI NOSENKO At Performances Of The Bolshoi Ballet In NYC

Informant said that on Saturday, 4/23/66, he was in the KGB quarters in the Soviet Mission building during the morning hours. While he was there, all KGB employees who were present in the quarters, were summoned into the office of NIKOLAY MAKAREVICH who is currently the "Chief" of "Line KR" (Counterintelligence). Thereafter, quite a few employees of the NY Residency appeared in MAKAREVICH's office, including the informant and IGOR ANDREEV.

Thereafter, MAKAREVICH spoke briefly to those present and said he was interested in having all employees of the NY Residency shown photographs of YURI NOSENKO, whom MAKAREVICH referred to under the KGB code name "IDOL".

MAKAREVICH explained that KGB Headquarters in Moscow, following the defection of NOSENKO to western intelligence representatives, had determined that NOSENKO had many "girlfriends" in the Soviet Union and, in fact, had introduced some of these "girlfriends" to OLEG GRIBANOV, former "Chief" of the Second Main Directorate, and to (FNU) TARABRIN, another official of KGB who was stationed in Headquarters and who was a close associate of GRIBANOV's.

MAKAREVICH said that the Second Main Directorate of KGB had decided, in an effort to determine NOSENKO's whereabouts, to send to the US with the Bolshoi Ballet troupe several of the girls with whom NOSENKO had had "dealings" in Moscow. MAKAREVICH said it was the thought of officials of the Second Main Directorate that the presence of these "girlfriends" in the Bolshoi Ballet troupe now in the US, might prompt NOSENKO to attend one or more performances of the Ballet in an effort to meet with his former "girlfriends". MAKAREVICH said that now there are five "ballerinas" with the Bolshoi Ballet troupe in NYC who previously associated with NOSENKO in Moscow.

MAKAREVICH said that KGB had no way of knowing whether or not NOSENKO might possibly attend a performance of the Bolshoi Ballet in the US, but said that against this possibility, "Line KR" (Counterintelligence) personnel of the NY Residency are attending, or at least all personnel of the NY Residency are attending, the performances of the Ballet in NYC with the hope of "spotting" NOSENKO in attendance.

MAKAREVICH said that for each performance, KGB in NY has approximately 20 tickets, and noted that KGB personnel of the NY Residency were in attendance at each performance using these tickets.
