Party (PLP) which recently gained control of the Bahamian Government campaigned on the promise that if elected they would rid American gangsters from the Bahamas.

Commissioner MORRIS will report to the Commission that the Bahamas Police Force has attempted to identify the hoodlums allegedly in control of Bahamas gambling. He will testify that he has caused the exclusion of certain gamblers from the casinos and has failed to accept others who have made application for employment in the casinos due to their reported hoodlum influence or criminal records.

There follows a Xerox copy of the articles appearing in the "Miami News," 3/16/67, and the "Miami Herald," 3/17/67.
