Czech Embassy, Washington, D. C. CESAR DIOSDADO, Customs Agent, Key West, who handles CIA matters, found this letter in subject's possession. [] said it was his understanding that subject may have been interested in returning to Cuba and thus wrote to the Czech Embassy, or he possibly obtained the letter for his protection in case he was caught on a trip into Cuba; the letter would tend to show he desired to go back to Cuba.

OTHER 4

[] said CIA had planned to have him conduct investigation to ascertain subject's possible pro-CASTRO sympathy.

On July 21, 1967, AUSTIN HORN, CIA Covert, Miami, stated CIA had terminated interest in subject in June, 1965, and possessed no derogatory information on him. Subject was reported to have vanished and rumors placed him in New York or possibly in Cuba looking for new refugees. Mr. HORN described subject as extremely fat and owning a white convertible.
