arm of the latter of these two groups and engages in clandestine activities that are directed supposedly against "communism". It is "Zero" that recently assassinated by bombing the Spanish official, whose assassination has instead been claimed to be the work of Basque separatists. "Zero" would not involve itself with any Cuban organizations. BOSCH, incidentally, has nothing to do with Spain or "Zero".

ARAUJO is unaware of any Cuban organization calling itself "C4" and suspects it is only a name adopted in connection with some bombing for the purpose of confusing the authorities.

(Mention of "Zero" and "C4" was made during the interview in view of the fact a supposed list of local assassination targets came to light in Los Angeles shortly after the assassination of TORRIENTE and because of recent information attributed to [AL 4120-PSI] that the "Frente de Liberacion Nacional Cubana", "Accion Cubana", "Abdala", "Zero" and "C4" had formed a coalition). Since ARAUJO moved to the Miami area, "Brigade 2506" in Los Angeles has been led by FULGENCIO GIL. Another leading member is one (FNU) LAMELAS. GIL may be characterized as "radical" in the sense of being impatient towards policies which he feels would be unlikely to accomplish anything. At least in the past he seemed to be so disposed. Nevertheless, he has continued so far as known to head "Brigade 2506" during a period in which it has become less and less active.

No group called "Organizacion Cubana" is known to have ever existed in the Los Angeles area or anywhere else and would seem to be simply a general term rather than the actual name of an organization. However, a group called "Comandos Accion Cubana" existed in the Los Angeles area about four years ago; but none of its members are known to ARAUJO.

The only group in the Los Angeles area that would be approachable for anything like BOSCH's purposes is (if it still exists) "Juventud Cubana." This organization worked with "Plan Torriente" in Los

AT NORTH MIAMI, FLORIDA: In view of the above, it is suggested that Miami contact ARAUJO, preferably through his employment and attempt to interview him further in connection with his information, and in view of his expressed willingness to help in connection with such matters as "Cuban" bombings, in his past contact with BOSCH and his apparent access to sources in the Cuban field in Los Angeles (despite his removal to Miami) as well as in Miami, to consider him for possible development in the Cuban field. It should be mentioned that while his information about "Zero" as stated above could suggest that he does not believe it was responsible for the assassination of TORRIENTE, the opposite is in the case. He was asked why "Zero" would wish to assassinate TORRIENTE and replied he did not know. The true import of his information is to assert that "Zero" is a secret organization and would not involve itself with any Cuban organization [as suggested by AL 4120-PSI's information]. His information about "Zero" should not be totally discounted in view of his family's alleged background in Spain. It is further suggested that he be specifically asked regarding his statement that "Comandos Accion Cubana" existed in Los Angeles four years ago, whether it was clandestine or participated in any "anti-communist" activities in the Los Angeles area and who would be able to furnish additional information about it.
