RewFOairtel to Bureau 3-11-59, and enclosures thereto setting forth information re contemplated visit of DREW PEARSON to the Dominican Republic (DR).

The following information furnished by [WF 568-S*] is set forth below for the information of the Bureau as it is not felt that it should be disseminated.

On 3-11-59, [WF 568-S*] learned that IRVING DAVIDSON, who was then at the Embassy of Israel, WDC, had been in contact with MARIO RODRIGUEZ, First Secretary, Embassy of the DR on that date. DAVIDSON stated he had just received a call from DREW PEARSON and that PEARSON planned a two-day visit to the DR with or without an invitation. DAVIDSON added he was going to the DR with PEARSON as he did not want PEARSON visiting there alone. DAVIDSON continued that they would see FULGENCIO BASTISTA, deposed president of Cuba, and would also attempt to see Generalissimo RAFAEL L. TRUJILLO, adding that there would be no "hard feelings" if PEARSON were unable to TRUJILLO. DAVIDSON stated PEARSON wanted to go to the DR and had invited DAVIDSON to accompany him. DAVIDSON stated PEARSON had to return to WDC on Monday since he was giving a dinner for ten unidentified senators that night. DAVIDSON assured RODRIGUEZ that PEARSON's visit to the DR would be in a friendly spirit. DAVIDSON stated he would contact RODRIGUEZ before leaving New York in case RODRIGUEZ had anything for him.

The above information was substantiated~~ly~~ furnished by [WF 984-S#] on 3-11-59. ~~(S)~~

Subsequently on 3-11-59, [WF 568-S#] advised that DAVIDSON had contacted his office and spoke to OPAL, not further identified, but possibly OPAL GINN, secretary for Parade Publications, Inc., which shares office space with DAVIDSON in suite 1224, Wyatt Building, WDC. DAVIDSON indicated that DREW PEARSON would call from Mexico and requested OPAL to advise PEARSON that DAVIDSON would meet him at the Skyways Motel, across from the new airport in Miami, on Thursday night, 3-12-59. DAVIDSON added he and PEARSON would go to the DR on Friday. DAVIDSON indicated he would "fix" PEARSON up" with a "blond or something," to which OPAL replied that she wished DAVIDSON would. DAVIDSON asked if OPAL would pay the "20 bucks" and OPAL stated she would, indicating she would "love" to know whether PEARSON were capable. DAVIDSON offered to disguise OPAL for that purpose, however, she declined stating she would like to know, but did not want to be the "guinea pig." DAVIDSON stated he would obtain a "couple of big redheads" and OPAL wished him success. ~~(S)~~

The files of the Registration Section, Internal Security Division, U. S. Department of Justice revealed on 8-19-58, that I. IRVING DAVIDSON, a public relations counsel, with offices at 1224 Wyatt Building, 777 14th St., N. W., WDC, had registered with the Justice Dept. as an agent of the Republic of Nicaragua on 4-15-55. He had also registered with the above office on 7-22-58, as an agent of Israeli Military Industries which was controlled by the government of Israel.

I. IRVING DAVIDSON

(JFK)

On March 10, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, learned that Drew Pearson, syndicated columnist, had been in contact with Dominican Ambassador Manuel de Moya on that date. Pearson stated that he had been talking with Irving Davidson about traveling to the Dominican Republic to see Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo, but added he did not want to go unless De Moya thought it was a good idea. De Moya stated that he thought it was a wonderful idea because Pearson would be able to give a wonderful report on everything down there. Pearson informed that he planned to depart for Mexico City that date and would visit the Dominican Republic on his return to the United States. Pearson indicated that he planned to visit Port au Prince, Haiti, and would visit the Dominican Republic on about Thursday. De Moya stated he would notify the Dominican Republic that Pearson would visit there and De Moya reiterated that he thought Pearson's visit was an excellent idea. Pearson indicated that he knew that the Dominican Republic and Haiti were having some trouble with Cuba (not further clarified) De Moya suggested that as long as Pearson was going to visit Haiti, he should also visit the Dominican Republic.

On March 4, 1959, the informant learned that I. Irving Davidson had made an appointment on that date to confer with De Moya concerning a very important person who planned to visit the Dominican Republic and for whom the "red carpet" should be rolled out.

On March 6, 1959, informant advised that the person referred to above by Davidson was Drew Pearson.
