MEMORANDUM TO: Mr. Rocca, Chief, CI/R&A

SUBJECT : Lee Harvey Oswald - Review of controversial data on 201-289,248 dissident Cubans scheduled to be published by Warren Commission

On 3 November 1964, I took Sam Halpern, Carl Trettin, [redacted] and Nester Sanchez of the Cuban desk (WH/SA) to the Warren Commission. Our mission was to examine some FBI reports, called to our attention by Dr. Goldberg, containing references to persons in Cuba. The reports were unclassified and destined shortly for public release with most of the other Oswald case exhibits. According to Dr. Goldberg, some of the remarks made about the Cubans reflected disloyalty on their part toward the Castro regime and probably would hurt them when the evidence became public. We examined about two dozen folders containing FBI reports. Most of the information was developed by the FBI in the Miami area when interviewing Cuban refugees relative to the Oswald case.

The WH representatives concurred with Dr. Goldberg's view and recommended that all controversial data be deleted. During the inspection, they recognized the names of several individuals now in Cuba who undoubtedly would suffer as a result of the unsolicited publicity. Dr. Goldberg said that he would delete all of the offensive items and thanked us for our cooperation. He said that he also had invited the FBI to look over the material and was expecting a similar review by that agency. In any event, Dr. Goldberg said he would exercise his own official prerogative and abide by our wishes.
