1.	Officials of the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City received very few Christmas a Cuban visa. The Cuban Embassy in Mexico City had received a cable from Habana advising of this, and which said that del Rio would be notified directly in a separate letter of the reasons for this refusal.2 Source Comments
	1. It is believed that the lack of the traditional exchange of Christmas greetings between the Mexican Government and the Cuban Embassy was the result of the resentment caused among Mexican officialdom by the strong note dated 26 November 1963, received by the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Relations from Raul Roa Garcia, Cuban Minister of Foreign
