FIORINI, Frank true name: STURGIS, Frank Anthony #2-22 Meeting at 11:00 AM, 21 APRIL 1960 at the home of Frank Fiorini, leader of the group. Group was supposed to have 6 B-26's, a B-25, 2 P-51's. It was further stated that there were some aircraft in South America ready to go. FIORINI made the remark that this particular group would not be using the airplanes with the implication that another group would take over the movement of the listed aircraft. The group as a whole was to be known as the "Crusaders" and there was talk of having a cross-type insignia made. Fiorini claimed to have recruited seven Canadians and 33 U.S. citizens with previous military experience who were supposed to be the military leaders of additional forces as they were recruited. The group intended to operate a radio station in the mountains for propaganda purposes. Fiorini gave the impression that the expedition could leave anytime within the next three or four weeks from the Florida area. Uniforms and arms have been acquired for a force of about 50 men. Rptd to be leader of group training in Everglades in preparation for invasion DEF 48328 of Cuba. Subj was not to go along with group. Date of invasion was to be 10 May 9, '60, with 20 participants.	IES (Border Patrol Report dated April 20, 1960 (19-9-9)) 10 May 1960

On 4 Feb 1961 a tugboat "Gil Bokie" was stolen from Miami by ~~some~~ group, some of whom were later arrested, and who had previously stayed at subj's Miami residence. Source reported subj on 26 Feb 61 had returned from what he described as unsuccessful attempt to get into Cuba on an invasion. Newspapers reported subj's US citizenship restored after he made appeal to I/IC. Some of thieves were: Alex Burke, Bob Rostalow, Dick Holey. Also a Sgt. Proctor was ~~involved~~.
