MUSCH

	A Hollywood script writer and critic who, in 1963, stayed a number of months in Moscow (living in the Hotel Poking). Ho had been invited, it seems, by (?) the Elmistry of Culture. does not know why LAWSON was around for so long. He had his wife with him but he appear to get real V.I.P. treatment because saw him cating in the "Diet Food Restaurent" where went for his own diet but where he suspected LATSON ate because it was cheap.
	THE POINT RES BROKEDS TO MED CHARDS 2. gathered that LATSON was probably a member of the U.S. Communist Party and under suspicion of the FeBele
	3. Pirst mot LANSON at a sominar hold for cinoma workers at the "Dom Tworchostva" at Eolshovo. was not a member of the sominar itself (which lasted some four weeks) but was staying at Bolshevo.
	LATISON came down to lecture to the seminar. LATISON, whom suspects of being relatively unsuccessful in his •	own country, was keen to prove himself a great expert on ' the cinema and a very progressively minded person, highly critical of many aspects of Hollywood got the impression that he was a person who found he was "odd man out" in the U.S.A. but who was not accepted by his Soviet counterparts either. mas told by one of the interpretresses of the Union of Cinema Workers that poor LAWSON wanted to mix in and be given something to do but without success. No one took much notice of him (he was not a big enough fish for individual Soviet cinema workers to want to take the risk of getting to know him). When he was invited to see films at the Union, it appeared that no one took the trouble of explaining the plot and no one really respected him.
	4. LAWSON has now returned to the U.S.A. but has no idea of what effects his experiences in the U.S.A. but( way prac pay ou pyr.
