1. The following information on the Cuban exile newspaper Mundo Americano, published in New York, was submitted by the AMOTs in EE-4463 of 16 November 1965. The information was obtained during October and November by AMOT source [redacted] who works in the offices of the Mundo Americano (Cuban Exile Newspaper).

Investors

2. One of the principal investors in the Mundo Americano is Jose LOPEZ Vilaboy (201-215815), who was President of the Compania Cubana de Aviacion (Cubana Airlines) and owner of the newspaper Manana In Cuba. From 1952 to 1958 LOPEZ was a henchman of ex-Cuban President Fulgencio BATISTA Zaldivar. LOPEZ contributed the sum of $40,000, however, it is believed that these funds are not LOPEZ' own money since it is rumored that he is not in a good financial position at present.

3. <sup>FR</sup> Manuel GARCIA del Busto (201-353892) and a group of persons trusted by Rolando MASFERRER Rojas (201-042669) and Serafin R. PEREZ Carril (201-294538) contributed $75,000. These three persons currently have financial control of the newspaper.

5. The following persons are in charge of the newspaper's operations:

Circulation and Operational Costs of the Newspaper

7. The newspaper has a daily circulation of 23,000 to 25,000. There are plans to increase circulation to 40,000.

8. Each issue of the newspaper costs between $2,500 and $3,000. The printing press is rented for $2,200 weekly. This rental fee includes the cost of ink, paper and lead for the linotypes.

9. Until September 1965, Mundo Americano banked with the Bankers Trust Company and the newspaper's checks were signed by Ceferino R. PEREZ Carril and Frank CASTRO. During the financial crisis in September 1965, Mundo Americano issued a check in payment of wages to the order of Amado GARCIA drawn against the Bankers Trust Co. This check was returned to GARCIA for insufficient funds. Since early October 1965, payroll checks have been drawn against the Banco de Ponce, 164 East 116 St., New York, N.Y. These checks are signed by Ceferino R. PEREZ and Jose LOPEZ Vilaboy.

Ideology and Control of the Newspaper

10. Mundo Americano is completely under the control of BATISTA oriented groups and its articles and editorials follow the line dictated by these groups. The newspaper attacks the U.S. Government, and especially the CIA, daily. Forwarded, as Attachment No. 2, is a copy of an AP cable, dated 25 October 1965, reporting a statement by the White House Press Chief and J. Edgar Hoover that the news published in the New York Herald Tribune stating that the President had authorized the FBI to gather intelligence abroad is not true. The Mundo Americano published a distorted version of the cable (see Attachment No. 3) and also an editorial praising President Johnson's action against CIA (see Attachment No. 4).

11. Rolando MASFERRER Rojas writes a column in the Mundo Americano using the pen name "Policarpo Pineda", in which he frequently attacks CIA. Copies of MASFERRER's column are attached as Attachment No. 5.

Blackmail

12. On 26 October 1965, Mundo Americano published an article entitled "Opposition to the Dynasty of the Somozas" (see Attachment No. 6). On 2 November 1965, another article appeared on the front page of Mundo Americano reporting that General SOMOZA was gravely ill in a Baltimore, Maryland, hospital. According to conversations overheard by source, after the appearance of these articles, the directors of the newspaper, including Rolando MASFERRER, were summoned to the Nicaraguan Embassy in Washington, D.C. At the meeting the Ambassador from Nicaragua pointed out that the news appearing in the paper was false. An argument between the Ambassador and MASFERRER ensued and MASFERRER was thrown out of the meeting. After that, a second meeting took place between the Nicaraguan Ambassador and the directors of the newspaper and since the second meeting, the newspaper has not attacked the SOMOZAs. The directors of Mundo Americano have insinuated that there has been some financial arrangement.

REPRODUCTION CARD PREPARATIONS

Inside Struggles

13. When Mundo Americano was first published, Jose LOPEZ Vilaboy had financial control of the newspaper. Currently, however, control is in the hands of Rolando MASFERRER Rojas and Ceferino R. PEREZ Carril. In Cuba, PEREZ Carril campaigned politically for BATISTA and was a Cuban Army Captain during the BATISTA Regime.

14. Since the newspaper was first published, it's policy has been controlled by the group having financial control. Although MASFERRER's and LOPEZ Vilaboy's groups both follow the BATISTA line, LOPEZ is in favor of a soft line and MASFERRER is in favor of a hard line, attacking groups and persons with which he does not agree. Since MASFERRER and PEREZ have obtained control of the newspaper, it has constantly attacked the U.S. Government and the CIA. LOPEZ is not in favor of attacking the U.S. Government, the CIA or the Spanish Government. MASFERRER, however, states that LOPEZ can do nothing about it because he no longer controls the newspaper financially. As a result of the recent shift in power, two of LOPEZ' men, Francisco CASADO Remedios and Jose M. PEREZ, were removed from their positions in Mundo Americano on 19 September 1965.

15. The following are Station file traces on persons mentioned in this report:

Subject, who was travelling without documents, was deported from Guatemala to Miami. DBA-19283 of 14 August 1962 reported that Subject, born circa 1928, residing Apt. 13-A, Olimpo Street, Santurce, Puerto Rico, advertising salesman, was anti-Castro and an unpaid informant of the SIM (Military Intelligence Service).

Co., 101 Maiden Lane, New York, according to information of 10 October 1960. According to the card, BRAS, a U.S. citizen, is considered by Joseph MIRANDA as a top level consultant to the FRD (Democratic Revolutionary Front) and someone worth cultivating by the Agency. He has been active in Cuban affairs since 1932 and was director of public relations and radio for the 26 of July Movement in New York, as well as adviser to Harold Janis, Director of Special Events Voice of America from 1942 to 1948.
