Alleged CIA Base in Florida - WJ-106

- 1. On 18 April 1961, Frank Fiorini, an ex-Marine who fought with Castro until he defected, called our New York office to report the following incident. Recently, Fiorini was trying to locate a particular Cuban in the Miami area and was told by a Dr. Ramon Ruiz, Vice President of Sea Highway, Inc., in Miami (telephone: MI-67564) that the Cuban was located at a CIA base called Bay Pines Harbor, located near Big Pine Key, 14 miles south of Marathon, Florida.
- 2. Fiorini went to the location but did not find his friend. However, he noticed a number of vessels including two PT boats. One was numbered FL-382E.
- 3. According to Fiorini, Ruiz was at one time associated with the FBI but is now an intelligence agent for Riza connections with Rosen.
- 4. Further inquiries may be directed to Mrs. Shirley Stetson, CS/CO Support Branch, X-6000.
