Santo TRAFFICANTE, Jr. (See Above).

Raul FERREIRA Garcia (No Station traces).

Meyer LANSKY (well known Mafia figure).

Joseph August RICORD (Subject of recent extradition proceedings from Paraguay).

Carlos MARCELLO (Station Traces: A Carlos MARCELO Ricero was a Cuban Prisoner at the Isle of Pines, Cuba, in April 1963, according to sensitive information.)

Dino Vicent CELLINI (Station Traces: Information from 1964 identifies Dino CELLINI as a well known gambler and underworld gangster who formerly worked in Cuba. His citizenship was given as U.S. (presumably naturalized). In July 1964, he requested a visa for the Dominican Republic. Dino and another unnamed brother were reported by their sister Julia, in 1960, to have had long association with dope and prostitution in Cuba. An LNERGO Document, no longer available at Station (DBA-86263 of 10 July 1957) is a long report on the CELLINI family.

Vicent ALOI (No Station Traces).

2. Station is aware that although LEAL's contacts make him a possibly interesting target, he will be a difficult and wary one. However, we are encouraged that we are right on target in trying to get closer to him by LNYAPA's confirmation of his associates and their obvious connection with drug trafficking.

3. Please see paragraph 6 of Reference B, which requests that a copy of Subject's 201 file be forwarded to us along with any results you may have from a covert name check. Upon receipt of Headquarter's approval of DAMOTA's approach to Subject in Santo Domingo, DAMOTA will provide addressees with his itinerary.
