Office of Station, JMWAVE

Chief, JMWAVE
Williamsville Station of AMELATT-1

1. Reference is made to the discussions held in the Summer and Fall of 1961 between WALTER F. SWAYNE and JULIE RUSSELL representatives, concerning the possible course of action by which AMELATT-1 might regain his citizenship. WAVE has made inquiries to determine the feasibility of re-introducing a new bill in Congress, based on AMELATT-1's past services to the United States organizations.

2. SWAYNE has advised that AMELATT-1 furnished "less information of minor importance"; the Bureau of Customs and the Narcotics Bureau had no record of AMELATT-1. SWAYNE, after repeated inquiries, has informed us that they cannot locate AMELATT-1's file.

3. It would seem that a new private bill would have as little hope of success as the two previously introduced, since a strong case cannot be made for L-1's prior services, based on the weak or negative replies noted above, and in it is currently possible to request a legal re-examination of the basis for SWAYNE's action to strip L-1 of citizenship, since the file is missing.

4. It is recommended, therefore, that the best method whereby AMELATT-1 can regain his citizenship is to apply at the nearest consulate overseas for an immigrant visa. Mexico City is the most likely place. If SWAYNE and AMELATT-1 agree to do this, Headquarters will be glad to assist in expediting the visa issuance.

The possible course of action by which citizenship, AMELATTER-1 has made inquiries to determine the feasibility of re-initiating a private bill in Congress, based on AMELATTER-1's past services to anti-Communist organizations.

2. IWHI has advised that AMELATTER-1 furnished them information of minor importance; the Bureau of Customs and the Narcotics Bureau had no record of AMELATTER-1. IWHI, after repeated inquiries, has informed us that they cannot locate AMELATTER-1's file.

3. It would seem that a new private bill would have to be introduced during the two previously introduced bills. It would be necessary to make use of L-1's prior services, based on the work of AMELATTER-1. It is not clear, but it is certainly possible to request a legal re-examination of the basis for L-1's action to strip L-1 of citizenship, since the file is missing.

4. It is recommended, therefore, that AMELATTER-1 can regain his citizenship is to apply at the Mexican Consulate in Mexico City for an immigrant visa. Mexico City is the most likely place to apply, and IWHI agree to do this. Headquarters will be glad to assist in expediting the visa issuance.
